THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD
AUGUST 6, 2023

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn't know the Bible, you'll probably hear an answer like this: "Being a good person" or "following the golden rule." No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stranger than that. This week's feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this. Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from His body and even His clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful.

Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn't about a heaven or hell scorecard. It's about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little. His beauty in us is the center of our faith.

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin:

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all who worked all year to plan and publicize the 2023 Festival, who had the monumental task of transporting, setting up and taking down the extra tables and chairs, booths and tents, who cooked the delicious food, baked and worked the booths and games, who did all the other jobs needed for our wonderful Festival. It was nice to see many new faces helping out.

Thanks to our bands and entertainers who kept things lively. Many people told me how much they enjoyed the fun, the relaxed family atmosphere made possible by all our Festival volunteers. A special thank-you goes to all who attended and made this a very successful event.

The weather was beautiful, and the crowds were happy. It will be some time before all the bills are in. Once all the expenses are paid, we will be able to report the actual money raised to support the ministry of our parish.

We give thanks to God for His blessings and for the talented people He has brought together in our parish. The Festival encouraged so many people to get to know one another better and to combine their gifts and talents for the good of our parish. The Festival helps to build up the body of Christ. As St. Justin said, "For all these good gifts, we give thanks."

Peace, Father Kevin

With Heartfelt Gratitude

On behalf of my wife Sandi, my daughter Cari and her husband John, and my two sons, Timmy & Jonny, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has offered words of encouragement, sympathy, support, but most importantly, prayers. We could not do this without all of you! Eleanor Mae was greatly loved, and she has left an empty space in our hearts that only God can fill. We have been overwhelmed with the response from the community. Thank you to all who got out their passports, crossed the Cuyahoga River and drove all the way to Brecksville to celebrate the funeral Mass for Baby Nora. Thank you to all who have sent cards and notes. Thank you to all who have offered kinds words and to all who have offered prayers.

The loss of a child or grandchild is a difficult burden to bear. Many have expressed to me their inexplicable grief at the news. When I went to Oxford, England last year, I learned that C.S. Lewis suffered the loss of his wife, Joy. She suffered with cancer. In her sufferings, Lewis prayed that he could take on some of her sufferings. During her worst times, C.S. Lewis experienced her pain as well. It seems that God has a way of transferring the unbearable pain to others. Just as Lewis bore the pain of his wife, you have helped us bear the burden of grief and sorrow. Our pain became your pain. I think this is why God calls us to mourn with others - to help them bear their pain.

I continue to pray for healing for my family. For Cari and John, for the great loss of their infant daughter. For Sandi, for the great loss of our first grandchild. For Timmy and Jonny, for the great loss of their first niece. We are so heartbroken, but I know we don't have to walk the journey alone. God walks with us, and our family, friends and parish community walk with us as well. Words cannot express how thankful we are for every step you take with us. May God bless you for the love you have shared with us and the pain that you have borne for us.

Peace and Blessings, and Many Thanks, Deacon Tim

"What does the poor man do at the rich man's door, the sick man in the presence of his physician, the thirsty man at a limpid stream? What they do, I do before the Eucharistic God. I pray. I adore. I love."

—St. Francis of Assisi

Catholic Humor

A priest and a rabbi met at the annual July 4th picnic. They were old friends and loved to tease one another. "This baked ham is really good," said the priest, "You really ought to break down and try some." "I will, I will," replied the rabbi, smiling, "at your wedding."

12 Rules for a Eucharistic Life

by St. Peter Julian Eymard

9th Rule: Go and place yourself, at least in spirit, before the Tabernacle under the gaze of Jesus. Reflect on the great gift of the Eucharist and ask, "Lord, make me understand, make me see, speak to my soul. Speak Lord and Your servant shall hear." Ask the God of the Eucharist to speak to your mind and heart, even as He did to those who came to Him when He was on earth, asking Jesus to fill and penetrate your soul with deeper insight and appreciation for His presence in the Holy Eucharist.
