TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 24, 2023

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once I gave my three-year-old niece a certain toy for Christmas. When she opened it, she was happy. Shortly thereafter, her five-year old sister opened another present from me: The same toy, along with some play jewelry. The three-year-old cried out: "That's not fair! Why'd she get the jewelry, too?"

Let's face it: There's something about God's grace in our religion which bugs us. We love to look at others' blessings and cry out: "That's not fair!" Catholicism is not fair in the sense that it is a religion founded on God's grace which is unmerited favor. God pours his mercy, love, and divine life upon us not because we're good, but because He is infinitely good.

If you think the "not fair" quality of grace is easy to accept, consider how typically angry we get when we hear the parable of the workers who get paid way more than they deserve. The hyper-generous landowner says to the indignant hard workers, "Are you envious because I am generous?" Well, yes, they are, and so are we! Therefore, we have to reckon with this painful truth in order to move into the divine sphere of gifts, which is the world of Christ and his Church. Then we are able to move beyond a tit-for-tat world and into one where gifts are poured forth on those who don't deserve it – namely, upon us.

– Father John Muir

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

From the desk of Father Kevin:

Dear Parishioners,

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that he who believes in Him might not perish, but might have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him."

God is so generous to us!

Jesus is certainly straightforward about what it takes to follow Him.

It takes everything we have and, even more importantly, everything we are. Jesus is looking for a new creation in us and in the world. He knows it is possible because He knows His Father and He knows us. He asks everything of us because He knows that what we have ultimately comes from His Father. What do we have that we have not received? Can we be as generous with Him and each other as the Father has been with us? Charles de Foucauld's prayer describes this generosity well:

Into Your Hands

Father,
I abandon myself into your hands;
Do with me what you will.
Whatever you may do, I thank you;
I am ready for all, I accept all.
Let only your will be done in Me,
and in all your creatures.
I wish no more than this, O Lord.
Into your hands I commend my soul;
I offer it to you with all the love of my heart,
for I love you, Lord, and so need to give myself,
to surrender myself into your hands without reserve,
and with boundless confidence
for you are my Father.

Peace, Father Kevin

"We follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer, and Service" Program

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about the upcoming "We follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer, and Service" Program at St. Justin Martyr Church. This effort is very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of St. Justin Martyr Church.

We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community! In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do.

Our special Commitment Weekend will be celebrated on October 14 & 15. If you have any questions regarding the "We follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer, and Service" Program, please feel free to contact the parish office.

Men and women are gradually introduced to the Catholic way of life and become fully initiated members through the RCIA. If you or someone you know are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please speak with Fr. Kevin, a team member, or the RCIA coordinator, Charlie Hunt at 440-946-3287 or Charles@stjustin.net. You are invited to offer a Rosary for the intention that others will answer the Lord's call to become members of His Church.

The CHOSEN: Season 3

The Chosen is an inspiring dramatization of the life of Christ. Watch the 3rd season with fellow parishioners. The series started Tuesday September 12 from 1:00-2:30 p.m. in the school's ATR

Catholic Humor

"I'm not a man who constantly thinks up jokes. But I think it's important to be able to see the funny side of life and its joyful dimension and not to take everything too tragically. I'd also say it's necessary for my ministry. A writer once said that angels can fly because they don't take themselves too seriously. Maybe we could also fly a bit, if we didn't think we were so important." ~ Pope Benedict XVI

IMPORTANT!

St. Justin Martyr will discontinue recycling paper in the containers behind the school as of September 29. The City of Eastlake does offer recycling with your garbage pick up.
