THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 29, 2023

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week, Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way He links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

— Father John Muir

We celebrate Jesus present here in the Sacraments and in the ministries of our Parish. He continues healing work through the ministry of priests and the lay people, the care given for those in need, and the prayers of all. This cooperation among the members of the Church in the mission of Jesus helps us all continue to follow Jesus on the way.

Today is Priesthood Sunday. Please remember on this special day to pray for priests ordained from this parish, those ministering throughout the Diocese of Cleveland, as well as our diocesan and our religious seminarians, and those discerning a vocation to the priesthood. I want to thank you, the people of St. Justin Martyr, for your inspiration, support and good example of living the faith well in our world today. I am humbly proud and grateful to serve as your pastor.

Catholic Humor: Three friends die in a car crash. Before entering the Pearly Gates, St. Peter asks them, "What would you like to hear your friends and family say while they mourn your loss at the funeral home?" The first friend says, "I would like to hear them say that I was a great doctor and a great family man." The second friend answers, "I would like to hear that I was a wonderful husband and a teacher who made a huge difference in their children's lives." The third friend replies, "I would like to hear them say 'LOOK, HE'S STILL MOVING!'"

The Eucharist has completely reshaped my entire life and heart because the Eucharist is the entire heart of Jesus. The Eucharist is the reason I became Catholic, and has been a place of comfort, joy, and rest in all the hectic trials of life. Whether I feel stressed or joyful, it has been and always will be my resting place, and no matter what I feel on a given day my greatest desire is to be deeper in the heart of Christ, the Eucharist.

Daniel Jordan
Second Year, Borromeo

Through all the ups and downs of discernment, Jesus in the Eucharist has been a source of stability and consolation throughout my seminary journey, and more broadly, throughout my entire journey of faith. It is with Him in the Eucharist that John 15 comes to life: "Remain in me, as I remain in you...Remain in my love."

Deacon Michael Garvin
V Theology, Saint Mary

It was in His presence that I first heard the call to begin my journey towards the seminary and it is in His presence that I continue to find my joy, hope, peace, rest, and refreshment. He calls me beyond myself, challenges me, and beckons me closer to Himself so that I may find new life through His most precious and true presence. He asks for my time in return for fullness of life and there is nothing that compares to Him.
