THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
NOVEMBER 12, 2023

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's Parable of the Ten Virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try Googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to Him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to Google and look at it. See how it depicts the Risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week, let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to Him, especially when life feels dark.

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

Dear Parishioners,

Last week I made First Friday Communion calls to some of our homebound parishioners. We spent some time speaking about their lives and the life of the parish. Then we prayed together and shared the Eucharist. Deacon Tim was visiting other parishioners. Parish Eucharistic Ministers also bring the Eucharist to many other homebound weekly. We are continuing the mission of Jesus. Your commitment to the We Follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer and Service supports this and all our parish ministries. Thank You!

The leaves are going, going, but not yet gone. We have seen the first of the white stuff we all love so well. It is dark so long! These natural signs remind us of the year moving towards its end in winter. Even as the days grow dark and cold, our Gospel reminds us that Jesus is our Light who brings us the fire of God's love.

Jesus is God's wisdom personified. He is the Way the Truth and the Life. He comes looking for us to lift us up, to help us see and hear and feel His presence with us on our journey.

Jesus warns us to be ready, to be prepared for His coming not just at THE END but in all the ways He comes to us. He calls us as individuals, as families, as a parish to pray for God's wisdom and help. He reminds us that He comes to us especially in those who need our help and in those who are helping us. The Lord's Resurrection is the basis for our hope. He will not abandon us. Peace, Fr. Kevin

Called to Serve

When I was growing up, I remember a discussion in our house about our names and what they meant. Although my brother David became a little boastful when he found out he was "Beloved of God," I was still pleased that my Mom had named me Timothy, which means "Servant of God." It seems to suit me.

As a "Servant of God," I was also called to be a servant to my country when I signed up for the Navy. It was quite an adventure. My time in the Navy had me jumping all over the country from Newport, RI to Orlando, FL to East Windsor, CT to Groton, CT to Silverdale, WA and finally to Saratoga Springs, NY. I was blessed to visit Hawaii four times and never took a plane. We even transited the Panama canal. My time in the Navy helped me to develop into the person I am today.

From serving our great country to serving the people of God, I answered the call to the Diaconate. Not so ironically, Deacon comes from the Greek word, diakonia, which means service to others. I thank God that He has called me to serve the St. Justin parish community.

Through all my days of serving, there is one person that stood with me, but does not get a lot of credit. My wife, Sandi, has had to put up with all my serving for the past 30+ years. All those places where I went, she was there too. While a servant is called to serve with humility, the wife of the servant is called to serve with even more humility. On this Veterans Day weekend, my thanks go out not only to the veterans, but their families who supported them as they served their country.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Catholic Humor

An usher was praying before Mass and asked God, "Hey, God, what does 100 million years seem like to you?" God answered, "100 million years? That's like 1 second to me." Then the usher asked, "So, what's 100 million dollars seem like to you?" "100 million dollars?" said God, "it seems like a penny to me." So, the usher asked, "Okay, Lord, could I borrow a penny?" God replied, "Sure, just wait a second."
