SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 10, 2023

2nd Sunday of ADVENT

We like to think we are totally free, but the bitter truth is we simply are not. Or better put, our freedom is limited on every side – by governments, corporate giants, physical and mental frailties, genetic shortcomings, and even the boundaries of time and space, and above all, the burden of our sins and pending deaths. In our day, we are perhaps particularly aware that we are not free to disconnect from the technocratic rulers of the air. If you doubt me, try not paying your internet bill and see what happens. We are not totally free.

It's nothing new, of course. In Jesus' day, everyone felt the crushing weight of the Roman Empire. You can say you're free all you want, but try not paying your taxes to Rome and see what happens.

Once we feel this burden in our own lives – however it comes – we are ready to hear the stunning announcement that commences Mark's gospel, "The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God." It's not a simple perfunctory introduction, but a dramatic announcement of new freedom. The word "gospel" was a political, even military, term. It meant: a great victory has been won and a new king is in charge. This Jesus – not the Roman emperor – is God's son, and He has defeated all that crushes human freedom. It's time to follow Him and be truly free. This week, let's refuse to submit our freedom to false rulers – especially that of sin. And let's rejoice that Christ is coming to make us perfectly free from all our oppressors.

– Father John Muir

Bambinelli Blessing

Every year on Gaudete Sunday, this year, December 16-17, the Holy Father invites the children of Rome to bring their Baby Jesus (Bambinelli) to be blessed and then later placed in their Christmas Mangers. To help remind us of the true meaning of Christmas, we continue this custom. Please bring your Baby Jesus to be blessed at all Masses that weekend.

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

Dear Parishioners,

Prepare the way of the Lord. What we await are new heavens and a new earth where according to his promise, the justice of God will reside.

These phrases from our liturgy can be the basis of our own prayer for the coming week. This is a busy time. Along with the customary preparations, many are generously supporting those who are suffering in our community. We are a light in the darkness. Amidst all the busy activity, we must take time to remember why we are doing what we are doing. When we start with prayer, all that we do can prepare the way for God's coming in our lives and the lives of those we meet.

We are pleased to welcome Bishop Malesic to our parish today. Last week, I met with him to discuss my retirement as pastor. At age seventy-five, church law requires pastors to submit a letter of resignation and I will be seventy-five this January. We agreed that I will continue as pastor through June 2024. We have a great parish and I look forward to the many blessings we can share in the days ahead.

Thanks to all who support our parish mission as We follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer and Service. Sharing of your time, talent and treasure prepares the way for the Lord and brings His new life to the world.

At this time of year, many look to lighten the tax burden through charitable contributions. I would like to remind you of some special needs we have. We have some extra expenses for our organ repairs this year. A gift to our Church or Faith Formation Endowments will help support our parish well into the future. Consider a legacy gift to the parish through your will. Your financial adviser can help you make the best decision for you and the parish.

Join us for an Evening of Confession on Tuesday, December 12 between the hours of 6:00-8:00pm. Come and celebrate the Sacrament of Penance before Christmas. Priests will be available for confessions in the chapel. Prayer and Adoration will be in the Church.

Next Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent or Gaudete Sunday, is marked by lighting the rose candle of the Advent wreath and by a special blessing for the Bambinelli, the Baby Jesus figure from the Nativity set. We invite all the young and the young of heart to bring your Baby Jesus figure to be blessed during the Masses.

Peace, Fr. Kevin

Tools for the Christian Man (and Woman)

Our first ever "Pints with a Priest" was held Monday, December 4. While we had over 30 men present to hear Fr. Chris Cox, his message was so good that I thought I would share the highlights. The main subject was masculinity and we reflected on what that means and what our culture says about masculinity. Fr. Chris concluded that real masculinity is shown in Jesus, crucified. It is only in the self-giving sacrifice of ourselves that we can become truly human.

Fr. Chris then went on to show us some necessary tools for living out our faith. As men, we love tools, we do projects around the house so that we can use our tools and justify buying new ones, and living a Christian life is no different. The first tool he pulled out of his backpack was a Bible. It is important to read and know scripture because "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ," quoting St. Jerome. Many of us were brought up with the notion that the Bible was reserved for clergy and religious, but today's Church recognizes our ability to read and discern. It also offers us tools and guides to help us understand what we are reading.

The second tool he pulled out of his backpack was a book on the Saints. I don't have a book of the saints, but I do have an app on my phone from Franciscan media called Saint of the Day. Every day a new saint is presented. We can learn from the saints because they come from all different walks of life. The saints are great models for us in how to live out our lives.

The third tool Fr. Chris presented was the crucifix. He reminded us that this should be in a prominent place in our house and in our lives. It should be a constant reminder of what Christ did for us. And if He did it for us, we need to do the same for others. He did not mean this in a literal sense, but rather that we need to every day die to ourselves and live for others.

A big thank-you to Fr. Chris for sharing his message and to the Holy Name Society that sponsored the event. Remember to keep your focus this Advent by using your tools: the Bible, the Saints and the Crucifix. They will help keep you on track to welcome the Lord when He comes.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Catholic Humor

A man from Nebraska was in New York on business and had arranged for his wife to fly out to meet him in Florida afterwards. Finished with several days' work, he reaches their hotel in Florida a day early. He decides to send his wife a quick e-mail but can't find the scrap of paper with her e-mail address, so he types it from memory. Unfortunately, he misses one letter, and his message is sent instead to an elderly deacon's wife whose husband had just passed away. When the grieving widow reads the e-mail, she lets out a piercing scream, and faints to the floor. Her family rushes into the room to help and sees on the screen: "Dearest wife. Just got checked in. Everything prepared for your arrival tomorrow. P.S. Really is hot down here."
