THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 17, 2023

BEAR WITNESS TO THE LIGHT

3rd Sunday of ADVENT

Why do we believe in Jesus and the Catholic Church? Why should we continue to do so? We've never seen Him face-to-face (at least not most of us, I assume). Most of us have never had mystical visions of angels or saints. We live in the same world as our atheist and secularists friends. Why do we believe in Christ if we've never seen Him?

The simple, symbolic answer the Gospel presents to us this week might surprise us: we believe because of John the Baptist. Early in John's Gospel, we hear: "There was a man sent from God, his name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him." The Baptist powerfully announces Jesus. This is a historical fact, and it is also now a pattern at work in our lives.

John the Baptist stands for the entirety of the old covenant, everything entrusted to the Jewish people. And yet he prophetically opens the door to something entirely new in Jesus, to the revival and fulfillment of God's promises. In every generation, and in every human life, God continues to do this. He has done it through people named Augustine, Francis, Catherine, Theresa, and countless others. In my life, the Baptist's spirit has come through persons named Eric, Paul, Mary, and Ron. I challenge you to name at least three people through whom God has announced the coming of Jesus in your life. Consciously thank God for their testimony. And let's commit ourselves to listening to the spirit of John the Baptist testify again this week so that we might more strongly believe in the light.

— Father John Muir

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

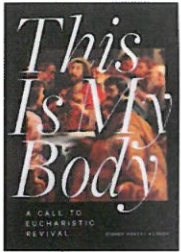

Dear Parishioners,

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus."

We certainly did rejoice with Bishop Malesic on his first visit to St. Justin. It was a joyful occasion for all. I echo his thanks to all the liturgical ministers, musicians, and all who joined in the Eucharist and all the bakers and servers for our reception afterwards. A good time was had by all.

We have been preparing for weeks and months. We are well aware of December 25th, but it is still surprising that it is already here. With only a few days left, there is still much to do. The business of Advent is not yet completed. In these final days, do something to finish Advent. Study the Advent Scripture readings, pray the Joyful Mysteries of the rosary, do a good deed, visit someone confined to their home, come to Reconciliation before Christmas. Don't neglect the spiritual preparation for Christmas and be caught off guard. When the bells ring, answer "Welcome, Lord. I am ready!"

As we seek to deepen our understanding and appreciation of Jesus's Real Presence in the Eucharist, we present our Christmas book gift, This Is My Body by Bishop Robert Barron. Bishop Barron's lively style and insights help us see more clearly and love more dearly the great gift of Jesus who gives Himself to us as food for our journey to the Father.

I thank all who have responded to our We Follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer and Service Program. Good stewardship and Christmas go together. Consider the good the Lord has done for you and the good which He has helped you to do. Consider the real need of your household and other charities. And please consider a donation of $100 for the parish. The Christmas collection has historically been a significant amount of the total yearly church offering. In the past, many of you have been able to meet or exceed the suggested offering and we thank you! I believe that whatever you do in sacrifice to God will return to you many times over.

I want to thank the Holy Name Society for our beautiful manger scenes here and at city hall. They are a wonderful way to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus' coming. They are bright lights and signs of hope in the dark of these December nights.

Peace, Fr. Kevin

It's Rose not Pink

Today we celebrate Mass with the rarest of liturgical colors, rose. Much of the Church year is spent in green for ordinary time. On martyr feast days, Good Friday, and Pentecost, red comes out. On Solemnities and feast days, the Church wears white. During the penitential seasons of Advent and Lent, purple is used, except for the third Sunday of Advent and the fourth Sunday of Lent. The natural question is why?

The Church uses penitential time to prepare for the upcoming feast. In earlier days, Advent was more strictly kept with fasting, prayer and almsgiving, much like we do Lent. Purple was chosen as the color to remind us of our call to conversion of heart in preparation for the coming great feast.

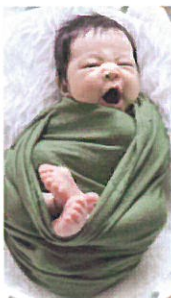

The Rose-colored vestments are traditionally associated with a sense of joy amidst a season of penance. On both Sundays (Gaudete in Advent and Laetare in Lent), rose is worn to remind us that the season of preparation is coming to a close and the great feast is swiftly approaching.

This Sunday is commonly referred to as Gaudete Sunday. For those whose Latin is a little rusty, Gaudete means "rejoice." The name is taken from the first work in the entrance antiphon of the Mass. "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near." (Phil 4: 4-5)

Today, we rejoice because we know that the Lord is near!
Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Joseph and Mary are having breakfast. Mary puts down her coffee and says, "You know, Joe, at the end of my life, I'm going straight to Heaven!" Joseph looks up from his newspaper and replies, "That's quite an assumption."
