

The Nativity of the Lord

"She gave birth to her firstborn son."

The pain of childbirth is something that boggles my mind. I'm sure I couldn't handle it. I can't even watch scenes in movies in which a woman gives birth. I understand it's a beautiful part of nature, but there's still something awful about it and the attendant suffering.

Which is why it's worth pondering an often neglected and currently unpopular part of the Church's theology around the birth of Christ, his was miraculous because it caused no pain to his mother. Even her physical virginity remains intact. Of course, we modern scientific people scoff at such an idea.

Without obsessing over the obstetrical details, we discover a glorious illumination in the symbolic meaning of this birth that we moderns find so embarrassing. God comes into the world in an utterly non-violent way. He himself will suffer his own bloodshed but will never shed that of others. He is so peaceful and non-violent that he will even rise from the dead without breaking the seal of the tomb. All of humanity, in the Church, will give birth to him in the Church free from the terrible pain due to original sin. How badly we need the truth of this miraculous birth today!

Let's delight in this great mystery and miracle of Jesus's birth. He is the Prince of Peace and always nonviolent. We need not fear him, ever.

Weekly Contributions December 17, 2023

The Contribution report was not available at the time of bulletin printing.

Thank you for your generous support at Christmas and all throughout the year!

Keep in touch with St. Justin's through our weekly email blast. If you are not receiving the weekly update, please email sjmooffice@stjustin.net and we will add you to the list!

If you have discontinued your home phone, please update your records with a cell phone! Thank you!

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

Dear Parishioners,

We welcome all who celebrate Christmas and God's greatest gift, His Son Jesus Christ. Merry Christmas!

Have you taught someone a new skill? Helped a friend find a job? Encouraged someone to change their life for the better? Reconciled with a loved one after some injury? Call to mind the joy, the fulfillment and the peace of that moment. A new way has been cleared. A light shines where once there was only darkness. These are the times when we experience what Advent and Christmas are all about.

Remember the story of the first Christmas? Joseph and Mary look for shelter and find only the poverty of the stable. But God is not dismayed. God does not turn away from us. The glory of God's only Son, born to us, enriches that stable. Joseph, Mary and Jesus, who found no welcome in Bethlehem, soon welcome the shepherds and the Magi to the Good News of salvation. Where we find obstacles, God finds a way. When we welcome the Lord, He shows us the way.

Let us make ready a way for the Lord to enter our world today. Let us welcome the Lord into our hearts. Let us welcome the Lord in those who need us. May the light of faith shine in our words and actions. May we pray:

*Come, Lord Jesus, do not delay:
give new courage to your people and by your coming raise us to the joy of your kingdom.*

On behalf of all the parish, I would like to thank the many people who contribute to our celebration of Christmas. We deeply appreciate the sacrifice and efforts of those who clean the church, those who help with decorations, all who help us pray better in the liturgy: the musicians, acolytes, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers, collectors, money counters, and our priests. Thanks, too, to the office staff who deal so well with the busyness of the season.

Peace, Fr Kevin

Nativity Blessing

God of every nation and people,
from the very beginning of creation
You have made manifest Your love.
When our need for a Savior was great,
You sent Your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary.

To our lives He brings joy and peace, justice, mercy and love.

Lord, bless all who look upon this manger.
May it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise up our thoughts to Him who is God-with-us and Savior of all,
and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen

God's Humility in Becoming One Like Us

The miracle of the Incarnation reveals the depth of God's love for humanity. At the heart of this glorious event is the humility displayed by God in choosing to become one like us. The Incarnation is a concept that goes beyond our human understanding. It is a mystery that invites us to contemplate the divine mystery of God taking on human flesh.

The very idea of an omnipotent and eternal God choosing to enter the human experience is a staggering revelation of humility. In his letter to the Philippians (2:5-8), the apostle Paul beautifully expresses this divine humility: "Though he was in the form of God, [Jesus] did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a slave, being born in the likeness of men."

God, in the person of Jesus Christ, willingly set aside the glory of His divine nature to embrace the limitations and vulnerabilities of human existence. The Creator of the universe entered the world as a helpless infant, born in humble circumstances in Bethlehem. This act of self-emptying reflects a profound humility that challenges our understanding of God's nature and power.

At Christmas we celebrate when God entered into our human condition. God chose to experience the full spectrum of human life—joy and sorrow, success and failure, love and rejection. In doing so, Jesus became the perfect mediator between God and humanity, bridging the gap that sin had created.

The miracle of the Incarnation that we celebrate is a profound expression of God's humility and love. By becoming one like us, God demonstrated a willingness to enter into the human story, embracing both its beauty and brokenness. The Incarnation invites us to contemplate the depths of divine humility and respond with gratitude and awe, recognizing that God, in Christ, has intimately shared in our humanity.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

A Eucharistic Christmas Prayer by St. Peter Julian Eymard:

O adorable tabernacle, new Bethlehem, house of bread, which encloses the Celestial Manna, open your door, and show me your treasure, as Mary raised her veil and with open arms disclosed her newborn Son. The little lamp of the sanctuary has called me here, even as the light of the angels' message guided the steps of the humble shepherds to the manger; and the shining of a star brought the Magi Kings to adore the Savior of the world. O wonderful tabernacle, show me Jesus, as Mary showed Him to the shepherds and the kings. Like Mary, give Him to me, entrust Him to my loving embraces, to my adoring homage. This Child, this Host, is mine—my bread, my life! Hail true body born of the Virgin Mary! O sweetest Infant Jesus, hidden here as in the stable; here poor as when lying on the straw; here helpless as when bound in swaddling clothes; lovely as when shedding your first tears, or lavishing your first smiles, when nestled on Mary's breast or caressed by St. Joseph. I give You all my heart. Give me purity, simplicity, the innocence of childhood. Teach me, like Mary and Joseph, to despise all the goods of earth, to desire only You, to love only You, to live but for You. Who for my sake, began in the manger that life of poverty, of suffering and of love, which You continue in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. Amen.

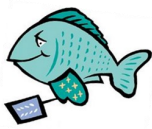

Catholic Humor: How did Mary and Joseph know Jesus' weight when He was born? They had 'a weigh in a manger'.

What did the sheep say to the shepherds visiting the Christ Child? Merry Christmas to ewe!

Coffee and Conversation

Due to Christmas and New Year we will not be meeting until January 4. Enjoy your Christmas Break!

Our Christmas card writing campaign was a huge success. We, as an entire parish, bought cards, wrote cards and completed 3,294 cards.

These were written by our parishioners both at home and on our card writing day. They will be distributed to 24 nursing homes, shut ins, Sisters of Notre Dame, University Hospital Systems Lake County and the incarcerated. Thank you to everyone who helped in anyway that made this possible. Those receiving the cards are so grateful. Merry Christmas and may you be blessed with great abundance through Jesus birth.

I wish you all a very Merry Christmas. May you be blessed with peace and joy during this holy season.
