THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD
JANUARY 7, 2024

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

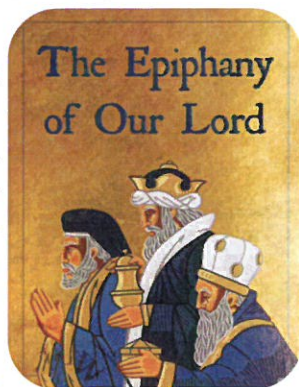

If you're on social media, you probably have seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe. The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the great Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord, the revelation of God's salvation for all peoples of all times. We are familiar with the story of the Wise Men finding the newborn King with the aid of the star and making their offerings of gold, frankincense and myrrh to the newborn King. Their total response to God's invitation and the difficulties they experienced on their journey also should be familiar to us from our own faith life.

The traditions about the Magi (wise men or kings) say that they were from three different races. They all joined together in seeking the truth. God loved them and revealed to them the fullness of His Truth, Jesus Christ. Many divisions exist in our world: in families and countries, between different religions, economies, races, in the politics of everything, even within us as individuals. Jesus stays with us, inspiring us to live in His justice and build His peace. He moves us to repentance and reconciliation, keeping us steadfast and hopeful in the face of cynicism and despair.

It is good to remember that God gave the Wise Men lots of help on their journey and that God is present with us each step of the way. This grace that makes our response of faithful living possible.

May the blessing of this Epiphany continue to shine:

God has called you out of the darkness into His own wonderful light.

*May you experience His kindness and blessings,
and be strong in faith, in hope and in love.*

*Because you are followers of Christ,
who appeared on this day as a light shining in darkness,*

may He make you a light to all your sisters and brothers.

*The Wise Men followed a star, and found Christ who is light from light.
May you too find the Lord when your pilgrimage is ended.*

Peace, Father Kevin

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

January 22, 2024

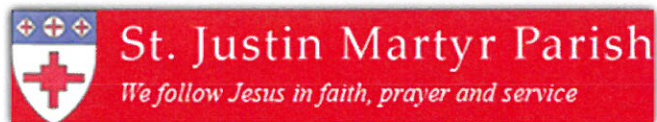

On this anniversary of the Supreme Court Decision, Roe vs. Wade (1973), all dioceses in the United States observe a "day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion."

St. Justin Martyr Church will celebrate Mass at 8:30am, Monday, January 22. All are welcome to join us in prayer.

The Annual Diocesan Mass for Life will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist on Friday, January 19 at 10:00am.

"Although we are all disheartened by the outcome of the election, we will never cease doing what we do best ... More than changing laws, we want to use our ministry to change the culture through our witness of love. We want to save lives (especially eternal ones). Be assured, that our focus continues to be on forming, informing, and accompanying women and families from throughout the entire life journey from conception through natural death. We will work harder to share all the incredible support networks that already exist throughout our Diocese, so that no woman or girl must ever seek to end the life of her child. Together, we will prove that God, that life, wins in the end. We are here to 'Protect Them Both.'"

Christmas is Not Over Yet

Rather than hastily dismantling decorations and packing away the ornaments, the Epiphany encourages us to savor Christmas a little longer. The extended celebration allows for a deeper contemplation of the meaning of Christmas and the ongoing impact of Christ's birth on our lives.

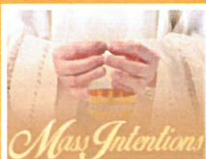

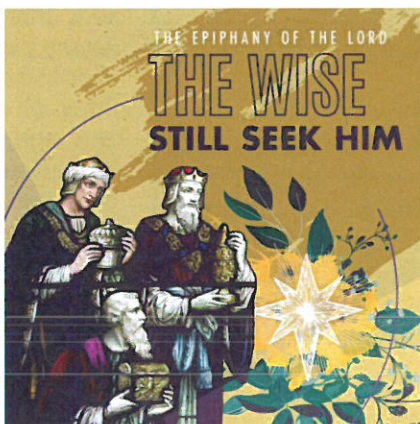

Gifts of Meaning: In the spirit of the Wise Men who presented their gifts to the baby Jesus, the Epiphany is a time to reflect on the gifts we bring to others and to the world. Consider how you can continue spreading love, kindness, and generosity beyond the holiday season.

Guidance from the Star: The star that led the Wise Men served as both a guide and a light. As we navigate the new year, the Epiphany invites us to seek the "star" in our lives. What is your source of inspiration, purpose, and direction that will guide you through 2024?

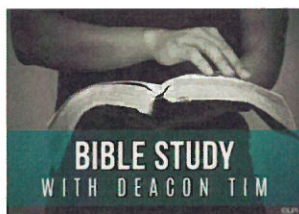

Openness to Revelation: The Epiphany challenges us to remain open to the ongoing revelation of God's presence in our lives. Like the Magi who recognized the divine in the humble setting of a stable, we are reminded to seek the sacred in the ordinary and to be open to the unexpected ways in which God breaks into our lives.

The Epiphany serves as a reminder that Christmas is not confined to a single day on the calendar. It extends beyond the presents, decorations, and festive meals, inviting us to continue embracing Christmas throughout the year. As we consider the journey of the Wise Men and the symbolism of the star, we need to focus on carrying the message of hope, love, and salvation into the days and months that follow, recognizing that the story of Christmas is ongoing, and the joy it brings is everlasting.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

There are still Mass intentions available for 2024. Stipend of $10 per Mass. Please stop in or call the Parish Office to schedule a Mass for a loved one. We have both weekday and weekend dates available for 2024. See the Parish Secretary.

Church Talk

Terms from the Catechism of the Catholic Church

EPIPHANY: The feast which celebrates the manifestation to the world of the newborn Christ as Messiah, Son of God, and Savior of the world. The Feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the Wise Men (Magi) who came from the East to pay homage to the newborn Savior, together with His baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast of Cana in Galilee.

GOLD: This precious metal was known from antiquity in Israel, as it was imported mainly from southern Arabia and used for coinage. Representing what was beautiful, rich and honorific, gold was offered to the Infant Jesus on Epiphany by the Magi as an acknowledgment of His future kingly role. It is also one of the substances traditionally and properly used for the sacred vessels employed in the Church's worship.

FRANKINCENSE: Fragrant gum resin obtained from trees, particularly several varieties found in Somalia, Yemen, and Oman. This important incense resin was used in ancient times in religious rites and in embalming. It constituted part of the Jewish incense of the sanctuary and is frequently mentioned in the Pentateuch; it was one of the gifts of the Magi to the infant Jesus, symbolizing His future priestly role. It is used today in incense and fumigants and as a fixative in perfumes.

MYRRH: Gum resin used as an ingredient in incense. In ancient times, it was used as a perfume and an embalmer. Myrrh was presented to the Infant Jesus by the Magi on the Epiphany as an acknowledgment of His future suffering and death.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—RCIA Becoming Catholic

RCIA prepares those desiring to become Catholic by instructing them in the Faith, worship and practices of the Church. It also uses various rites to mark stages toward full union with Christ and the Church. We soon will celebrate the Rites of Acceptance & Welcoming with Rick Wiggins and Terry Rosian. Through the Rites of Acceptance (for the un-baptized) and Welcoming (for the baptized), candidates express publicly their intent to enter into a formal relationship with the Church. The rites take place during the Mass, allowing us as parishioners to welcome, pray for and support those desiring to join our family of faith.

Catholic Humor

-Why did the 3 Wise Men stop at Bethlehem? Even the wisest men need directions!
-Why did the 3 Wise Men carry an autograph book? They heard there would be a star.
-What did the fourth Wise Man bring? A note saying, "Sorry, the camels ate your gift!"

CONFIRMATION 2024 – Our next session is our Confirmation Retreat on Saturday, January 20, 9:00am-10:00pm.

Prayer partners, you should have received a letter in the mail. If you have not, please contact Beth immediately. This is concerning the Retreat.

We are once again selling St. Justin Martyr Spirit Wear. Order forms can be found in the gallery of the church.

Sample shirts can be found in the office area until after Christmas. Read the order forms for important directions when ordering.

Coffee and Conversation

*Will be held in the ATR during the winter.
Stop by between 11:00am-12:30pm.*

The Funeral Ministry is in need of altar servers. You will be trained to be an altar server. You do not have to serve Sunday Mass; only funerals on occasion. Contact Beth, if you can help out.

Today, we celebrate the Magi giving the precious gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to Jesus.

Did you know we were given precious spiritual gifts from the Holy Spirit at our Baptism? These special gifts are our Charisms, a gift that should be shared with others to do good for God as we share them naturally. These charisms are: administrative, discernment, encouragement, evangelism, faith, giving, healing, helps, hospitality, intercession, knowledge, mercy, missionary, pastoral/shepherd, prophecy, service, teaching, wisdom, and creative ability. Each one of us has one or more of these gifts that we excel at doing.

Think about what gift(s) you have? How do you share your wealth of this gift with others? If you would like to learn more about what charism/gifts you have and how to help celebrate them with others, contact Beth.

February 16, February 23, March 1, and March 8,
From 5-7pm in the Parish Hall
Volunteers will be needed.
