SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 14, 2024

Civil Rights Day, January 15

In Catholic social tradition, "rights" correspond to the treatment every person deserves not because of background or individual merit, but by virtue of being created in the image and likeness of God. As followers of Christ, we are called to a concern for our brothers and sisters. This means that, in acknowledging rights, we also acknowledge responsibilities.

St. John Paul II writes, "every man is his 'brother's keeper', because God entrusts us to one another (Evangelium Vitae, 19)." In our complicated world, it can be easy to get overwhelmed by public policy. However, we are not exempt from engaging in public life. Today, we remember that we are all called to work to ensure that social structures uphold human dignity and support true human flourishing.

A Prayer for a Just Society

Heavenly Father, You create every human person in Your image and likeness. You call us together in one human family, united in dignity, value, and love. Give us the strength and wisdom to protect this dignity and life at all stages. Jesus our Savior, you proclaim the blessedness of those who work for peace and who hunger and thirst for righteousness. Forgive us for the times we have not responded to the call of Your Beatitudes. Holy Spirit, the Advocate, empower us to stand in defense of the poor and vulnerable. Good and Gracious God, make our hearts to love like Yours. Amen.

Please pray for the deceased members of the parish including,

Dennis Morley, Mayor of Eastlake

The parish office and the church will be CLOSED following morning Mass on January 15 for MLK Day. There will be no Adoration this day. If you need emergency assistance, please call the office, listen to the prompts on the answering machine and someone will call you back as soon as possible. Thank you.

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

Dear Parishioners,

"Come, and you will see." Jesus says.

It is always good to go with the Lord. I received good news for myself and the parish this week. First, Bishop Malesic granted me permission to retire as pastor on June 30, 2024. I am grateful for all the people and the blessings of these 30 plus years as pastor of St. Justin Martyr Parish. You have enriched my life in so many ways. Thank you!

Second, we as a parish are beginning to process to find the next pastor for St. Justin Martyr. The Clergy Personnel Board wants to hear the opinions of parishioners regarding the qualities and characteristics you would like to see in a new pastor. You are invited to participate in an on-line survey specific to our parish for the next four weeks. Please see the notice below for the link to the survey. The more responses the merrier!

The Christmas season celebrates the Incarnation of the Lord. Jesus really shares our life and redeems our whole existence by His life, death and resurrection. We now begin liturgical Ordinary Time when we, like the disciples in our Gospel today, spend time with the Lord so that we might learn His way of life.

Meeting Jesus and learning His ways influence our respect for one another, our concern for our human society and for the world's natural environment. He gives us hope and courage to meet the day-to-day challenges. He offers us a way back to life when we have chosen sin or death. And these answers are real, only found when we "stay with the Lord."

The gift of the Holy Spirit helps us to stay with the Lord and with each other. We are more than an accidental conglomeration of individual believers. We are a Church, an assembly of those incorporated by their faith in Jesus. We form the Body of Christ for our time and place.

Stewardship reminds us that the gifts God has given to each of us are unique in themselves. No assembly of believers, no church can rest on the gifts of a few people alone. When we all come together in giving back to God from the gifts and talents He has given us, we grow in our life with Christ and each other. We become vibrant and strong as the Body of Christ. Our calling is to cultivate the life and gifts of each member.

I will be on vacation from January 20 to February 4. Fr. Gerald Bednar will celebrate the weekday Masses for those weeks. Fr. Bouhall and hopefully Fr. Pizmoht will celebrate the weekend Masses. Please pray for me as I will for you. Peace, Fr. Kevin

The Clergy Personnel Board assists the Bishop of Cleveland by making recommendations to the Bishop for clergy assignments. The Board is interested in feedback from the parishioners of St. Justin Martyr Parish and invites you to participate by responding to the survey link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SJMEastlake>

Please be assured that you remain in our prayers during this time of transition. This survey will be open until Monday, 5 February 2024.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

January 22, 2024

On this anniversary of the Supreme Court Decision, Roe vs. Wade (1973), all dioceses in the United States observe a "day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion."

St. Justin Martyr Church will celebrate Mass at 8:30am Monday, January 22. All are welcome to join us in prayer.

The annual Diocesan Mass for Life will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist on Friday, January 19 at 10:00am.

The Diocesan Office for Human Life has promoted the Nine Days for Life Program this year, a nine day Novena to pray for the protection of human life nationwide! Join in by going to www.respectlife.org/9daysforLife. You can find daily intentions and copies of the Novena available for personal use.

My Daily Prayers

Do you like to begin your day with prayer? Do you need some prayer time during your lunch hour? Do you like to end your day with prayer?

The Diocese of Cleveland is pleased to offer daily audio prayers delivered to you via email every morning. The prayers are led by a variety of clergy from the diocese and provide a simple way to create and sustain a prayerful relationship with God. Sign up at dioceseofcleveland.org/mydailyprayers.

You are Called

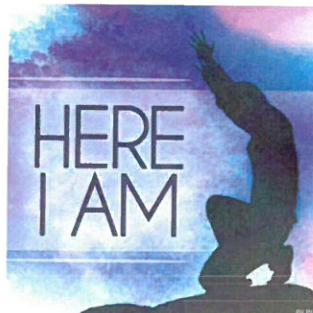

It is rare that any of us would be awakened by the voice of the Lord calling our name. It is equally rare that an itinerant preacher in sandals would stroll by where we are working and call us to come with him. The Biblical instances of a call to vocation make it seem like it is for someone else, but this could not be farther from the truth,

Vocations are not just for Old Testament prophets, Jesus's disciples or even clergy and religious. We are all called by God. At the very core of our being, we were created by God for a specific purpose. That purpose is our vocation and God calls each and every one of us to live out that vocation.

A common misconception is that we discern our vocation once and then we are done. The reality is that our vocation in life changes and we are called to constantly evaluate how God is calling us. Like Samuel, we need to be ready to answer the call, "Here I am, Lord."

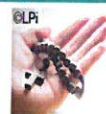

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—RCIA

Becoming Catholic: RCIA prepares those desiring to become Catholic by instructing them in the Faith, worship and practices of the Church. It also uses various rites to mark stages toward full union with Christ and the Church. We will soon celebrate the Rites of Acceptance & Welcoming with Rick Wiggins and Terry Rosian. Through the Rites of Acceptance (for the un-baptized) and Welcoming (for the baptized), candidates express publicly their intent to enter into a formal relationship with the Church. The rites take place during the Mass, allowing us as parishioners to welcome, pray for and support those desiring to join our family of faith.

Catholic Humor: There once was a rich layman who was near death. He was very upset because he wanted to take his wealth with him to heaven. So, he prayed that he might be able to keep at least some of his riches. An angel heard his plea and appeared to him saying, "Sorry, but you can't take it with you." The man begged the angel to put in a word with God. The angel returned and informed the dying man that God decided he could bring one suitcase. Overjoyed, the man filled the case with gold bars. He soon died and met up with St. Peter, who objected to his luggage. St. Peter got the okay from God and allowed the man to enter. St. Peter opened the case to inspect the items and exclaimed, "Oh good, you brought more pavement!"

Please pray for our Confirmation Catechists as they prepare for this retreat next Saturday and pray for our candidates that they may received the Holy Spirit into their hearts at retreat. Please pray the

HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER OF ST. AUGUSTINE

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy.

Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.

Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy.

Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy.

Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy.

Amen.

We Follow Jesus in Faith, Prayer and Service

God's love certainly unites us!

This is evident in the parish response to our recent annual stewardship outreach. THANK YOU! I am humbled and grateful for your commitment to St. Justin Martyr Church, especially during challenging times. Through your commitment, our parish remains vibrant, engaged and Christ-centered in the Eucharist and in serving one another.

God's work is never done! Your prayerful response both materially and spiritually is setting the groundwork for a path forward as we plan for the future of our parish and continuation of critical ministries and service programs. St. Justin Martyr Church continues to grow as a strong, faith-filled stewardship community because of parishioners like you!

Thank you for your generosity, prayers, and commitment to St. Justin Martyr Church!

Peace,
