THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 21, 2024

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

Pope Francis has said that respect for life is not just about the unborn child in the womb, but also about the least of our brothers and sisters. Yes, it is even upon the undocumented resident alien who has no voice but ours. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are all called to protect the voiceless.

Let us pray...

*Good and gracious God,
you blew into our nostrils the breath of life.
You are the One to whom we owe our very existence.*

*Give us the courage to take that unpopular position of protecting those who have no voice,
the unborn child in the womb
to the person taking his or her last breath.*

*The life you have given us is a gift beyond measure.
Embolden us to speak the truth about protecting the child, the elderly, and the one without a voice in the public square.*

*With thankful hearts,
we ask all this of the One God,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.*

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin,

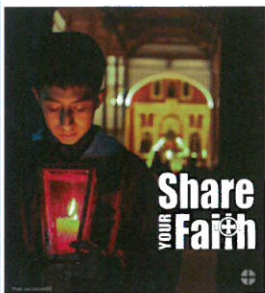

Dear Parishioners,

Collection for the Church in Latin America and the Diocesan Mission in El Salvador January 27-28

Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America and our Diocesan Mission in El Salvador. For many in this region, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support of this collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

This collection is the main support for the two priests who work in the parishes served by our missionaries, Fr. Paul Schindler and Fr. John Ostrowski. The 60 years of service from Cleveland priests, religious and laity have been supported through this collection. Please be generous. There will be a second collection during the offertory for this purpose.

Human trafficking and the abuse of children and the vulnerable people are two serious violations of human dignity that demand urgent and comprehensive responses from the Church, governments, and human rights organizations. By working to heal the wounds of victims and their families, bring perpetrators to justice, and implement awareness and prevention programs, the Church is bringing hope and helping to end abuse and trafficking.

In Venezuela, an anti-trafficking project combining education, communication, training and cooperation among church leaders, civic leaders and human rights organizations used grants from the Collection to help with the human trafficking issues in the area. In Peru, the same kind of collaboration among agencies used grants to prevent the abuse of children and vulnerable people to address reported incidents of abuse.

Our own Diocesan Mission in El Salvador supports two churches and many small chapels in hard-to-reach areas, along with schools, meal programs to help the needy in the country, along with the support of the priests and their parishes. There is so much need. Please consider helping in this special collection.

Peace, Fr. Kevin

Eucharistic Adoration: Daily in the Chapel 9am-4:30pm

"The devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because It gives us the Author of Grace; it is the sweetest, because the Lord is Sweetness Itself,"— St. Pius X

Come spend time with Jesus.

WE SHOULD SPEND AS MUCH TIME
IN THANKING GOD FOR HIS BENEFITS
AS WE DO IN ASKING FOR THEM.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

God Loves You!

Often times we take it for granted that God loves us. It is important enough that it bears repeating and emphasizing, because God does love you. Yes, he loves everyone, but he really loves you! You, just you. Each individually, specifically and in a special way, you! God's love for you is as unique as you are as a person. Why? Because we are all created different, and God loves you in a special way.

How do we know that God loves each one of us in a special way? The proof is in our very existence. None of us need to be created. The fact that we exist is the proof. Since none of us need to be here, God shows His love for us in that we were created by God and for God. It is out of His abundance of love for you that God created you! What a blessing! What a grace we have been given to be loved by God!

Our response to God's love is crucial. Praise and thanksgiving become a natural response, to all that God has given us, the very gift of our lives. When we open our hearts to God with songs of praise, our hearts become one with God's heart. God's love encourages us to extend love and compassion to others. It inspires acts of kindness, understanding, and forgiveness. By showing God's love, we play a part in creating a more compassionate and caring world. Prayer becomes a way for deepening our connection with God. Prayer becomes a conversation where we express our gratitude, seek guidance, and strengthen our relationship with the God. Acknowledging and reciprocating God's love enriches our lives and the lives of all that we encounter.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—RCIA

Becoming Catholic

RCIA prepares those desiring to become Catholic by instructing them in the Faith, worship and practices of the Church. It also uses various rites to mark stages toward full union with Christ and the Church. We will soon celebrate the Rites of Acceptance & Welcoming with Rick Wiggins and Terry Rosian. Through the Rites of Acceptance (for the un-baptized) and Welcoming (for the baptized), candidates express publicly their intent to enter into a formal relationship with the Church. The Rites take place during the Mass, allowing us as parishioners to welcome, pray for and support those desiring to join our family of faith.

Catholic Humor

A six-year old boy who had been learning his prayers, was overheard reciting the Lord's Prayer at Mass. He said, "And forgive us our trash passes, as we forgive those who passed trash against us."
