Catholic Schools Week

What is the benefit of a Catholic Education?

It is a good question, because our parish communities have a mandate from the Gospel to preach the good news. Moreover, that is exactly what a good Catholic school does. It is another one of the ministries of a parish: to educate well-rounded individuals in Gospel values, preparing those young individuals to take their eventual place in the larger secular community. All the educational efforts of the parish school are focused on the life of faith. That faith is formed in knowledge of the teachings of the Church and of the Gospel, and those qualities are demonstrated through a life of service to the community.

A Catholic school is a community of faith, knowledge, and service, as a ministry of the parish community; and Catholic Schools Week provides a wonderful opportunity for us to reflect on whether we have "a school with a parish, or a parish with a school," and make sure our parish school is living its mandate from the Church.

St. Justin Martyr Parish partners with both All Saints School and Mater Dei Academy. Our parish assists elementary school children at both schools to be able to receive a good Catholic education. If you are interested in learning more about Catholic Schools, please attend their open houses and speak to Fr. Kevin for more information.

This weekend, we will have a second collection for the Church in Latin America and our Diocesan Mission in El Salvador. Many people in these areas do not have access to Church program and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity enables our brothers and sisters to share in the life of the church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous in this special collection. To learn more, go to www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Eucharistic Adoration: Daily in the Chapel 9am-4:30pm

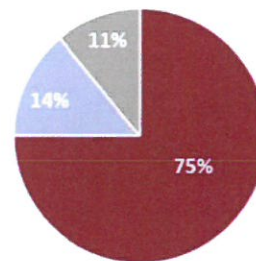

"The mark of the Christian is the willingness to look for the Divine in the flesh of a babe in a crib, the continuing Christ under the appearance of bread on an altar, and a meditation and a prayer on a string of beads."

- Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

War and Peace

Many of the lead headlines over the past year or two have been about foreign wars. Whether it is the Russian invasion of Ukraine or the conflict between Israel and the Palestinians, we hear of people whose lives are torn apart by the ravages of war. Often wars in other countries don't mean as much to us unless we have a personal connection. For instance, the Ukrainian churches in Parma have a direct connection to the Russian - Ukrainian war.

The Salvadorian Civil war began in 1979 and continued through 1992. Although I was pretty young when the war started, I remember the key events that made this war real to many in the Diocese of Cleveland. It started with the assassination of Archbishop Oscar Romero. On March 24, 1980, the Archbishop was assassinated while celebrating Mass, the day after he called upon Salvadoran soldiers and security force members to not follow their orders to kill Salvadoran civilians.

What brought the war home to many in Cleveland was when four American, Catholic church women were kidnapped and brutally murdered on December 2, 1980. Maryknoll Missionary Sisters Maura Clarke and Ita Ford, Ursuline Sister Dorothy Kazel, and laywoman Jean Donovan were on a Catholic relief mission providing food, shelter, transport, medical care, and burial to war victims.

This past year, I was blessed to travel with a group of priests and deacons from the Diocese of Cleveland to El Salvador. We visited the locations where the martyrs shed their blood for the faith. This year marks the sixtieth anniversary of our Diocesan Mission in El Salvador. Beginning in 1974, continuing through the Salvadoran Civil War and even to today, our diocese has provided pastoral, spiritual and financial support to the people of El Salvador. Our retreat group also visited the two parishes in El Salvador. One is led by Fr. John Ostrowski and the other by Fr. Paul Schindler.

This weekend, you will have the opportunity to support our mission work in El Salvador. Please be generous with your prayers for our mission work as well as your financial gifts. Your kindness is making a difference in the lives of many Salvadorians.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—RCIA: Becoming Catholic

RCIA prepares those desiring to become Catholic by instructing them in the Faith, worship and practices of the Church. It also uses various rites to mark stages toward full union with Christ and the Church. The rites take place during the Mass, allowing us as parishioners to welcome and support those desiring to join our family of faith. Please pray for Terry Rosian and Richard Wiggins as they journey toward the Easter Sacraments.

Catholic Humor

Sister Regina worked at a nursing home and one day she ran out of gas while traveling there. Luckily, there was a gas station nearby. Not having a gas can in the trunk, she decided to use a bedpan sitting next to the spare tire. After talking the gas attendant into letting her use an unauthorized container, Sister made her way back to the car with the gas in pan. As she was pouring the gas from the bedpan into her tank, two men watched her from across the street. One turned to the other and said, "If that thing starts, I'm turning Catholic!"

CONFIRMATION 2024 Our Confirmation candidates experienced retreat Saturday, January 20. They enjoyed learning about the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit, about prayer from their prayer partners, the Sacraments of the Church, experiencing the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the liturgical year, and attended Mass. We enjoyed our meals prepared by the Rosetta and Phil Scafidi. We concluded our day by doing a Scavenger Hunt in the Church at night and received Letters of Love from those who love us.
