FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT
MARCH 10, 2024

Fourth Sunday of Lent

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

— John 3:16

When I first saw each of my three children, I loved them with a love that I did not realize existed in me. These were flesh of my flesh, bone of my bone, and were the result of the love between their mother and me. This made them mine.

My love for them continues to be so strong as they grow older and I cannot fathom ever losing them. Then I look around and see friends of mine who have lost a child. It makes me want to hold them tighter and not let go.

But as I have continued to grow in this stewardship way of life, I realize that these three wonderful human beings are not really mine. They belong to God. They are entrusted to me in this world, but they belong truly to the One who loves them even more than I do. Yet, it is not easy to offer them back to God, especially due to tragedy. If that day ever were to come, how could I handle it?

Not only did God offer his Son to the world, the offering was done with full knowledge that the Son would die a brutal death. God loves us so deeply He placed Himself in the very position that any parent dreads the most. So this Lent I will look at my children and I reflect on the depth of love a parent has for a child and the even more profound love God has for us.

This weekend, we will have a collection for the Catholic Relief Services to "Reveal Christ's Love" to our brothers and sisters in need. This collection makes grants to six Catholic agencies that provide relief and support to struggling communities and work for peace and reconciliation among our marginalized brothers and sisters, both here and around the world. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection. There is an envelope in your packet for this purpose. ## From the Desk of Fr. Kevin

Dear Parishioners,

"God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him."

It is easy for us, in our deeply divided world, to forget God's view of us. What we see all too clearly are the things that divide us. We tend to believe that these divisions must be as they are. We often fail to see how our sins and those of others transform our differences into these destructive divisions. We often miss the opportunity for repentance, reconciliation and new life.

Some of the Gospel's favorite analogies for faith are "seeing" and "living in the light". The Gospels do not downplay the darkness and divisions of our world but they do want us to experience the grace of God at work overcoming them. We must choose the light, reject the darkness and then we must act. Christ is the true light of the world. By putting our faith in Him, we "come into the light, to make clear that our deeds are done in God."

Lent is the privileged time for reconciliation. How are we being reconciled and reconciling with others?

We are thankful that Fr. Lou Pizmoht can celebrate Mass here again. He is feeling better and will be here for the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass several times a month. Thank you for all your prayers.

Please plan to join the parish mission Living a Eucharistic Life led by Fr. John Thomas Lane on March 17-19. Fr. Lane visited the parish to prepare to lead us into a deeper communion with the Lord in the Eucharist. He is excited to be with us. I believe we will be richly blessed by this time of prayer. Y'all come!

Peace, Fr. Kevin

THANK YOU !!

Our wonderful St. Justin Martyr community has, once again, opened up their hearts and donated approximately $4,800 to help the Mayan Indians in Guatemala. I thank you and I thank God for your generosity. These donations will go a long way with helping us get the needed medications and supplies for our mission trip.

You can still donate at www.guatemalafamilydevelopment.com or by leaving your donation in the church office.

May God bless you all,

Margie Drew

RECONCILIATION NIGHT

Lenten Evening of Confession at St. Mary Magdalene
Tuesday, March 12, 6:00-7:30pm
Adoration, Reconciliation & Prayer – All are welcome!

Congratulations to our parishioner, Patricia Homan, who has been designated by the Irish American Club as Irish Mother of the Year!

She will be in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in downtown Cleveland this year! She is a member of the Irish American Archives Society, Irish American Club East Side, Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians, West Side Irish American Club, and the Mayo Society. Maith thú!

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

The beginning of the end of abortion...
From February 14-March 24, you are invited to join with other Christians for 40 days for Life—40 days of prayers and fasting for an end to abortion. You are also invited to stand peacefully and pray anytime between 7am to 7pm during the 40-Day vigil in the public right-of-way at Family Planning, 54 South State Street in Painesville. Our volunteers go on THURSDAYS. Join us by signing up at the table in the gallery.

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD!

Psalm 100 was written as a hymn inviting the people to enter the Temple courts with their thank offerings for God who created them. You can almost picture the people in King David's time singing this new Psalm as they made their way to the temple, or as Mary taught it to Jesus at their home in Nazareth. Or perhaps even, Jesus and His Disciples as they walked the path from Galilee up to Jerusalem, singing the Psalm and giving glory to God as they made their yearly pilgrimage for Passover. It encourages all to lift up our voices in song to offer our thanksgiving to God.

Likewise, we are called to that same response. For all the blessings that God has given us, we offering our praise and thanksgiving. Most of us do this from our pews, but there are some individuals who are called to lead us in song. We are so grateful to all those in our music ministry, especially Tom Gulden, who leads us every Sunday, Tim Lake, who fills in when Tom is not available. Also, a shout out to our cantors, John Roskos and Suz Enyedy. The Sunday 10:30 a.m. Mass is made special by our Contemporary Choir led by Mike Caranna and Rick Jablonski, with Dave Slavick (percussion/vocal), Diana Caranna (tambourine/vocal), Karen Yuko (vocal), Dave Scarperto (bass/vocal), Mike Klingman (guitar/vocal), Christine Miller (vocal) and Diane Petrucio (signing for deaf). All of our musicians pour their love of music into their work, week in and week out. We are so grateful to have them.

Our music ministry is always open to new volunteers. Won't you share your musical talent with our parish? More vocalists are always welcome, but musicians are needed as well. A piano accompanist would be a great addition to the contemporary choir, as would a trumpet or flute or saxophone or clarinet or violin! If you can play it, we'd love to hear it. If you are interested in being a cantor, call or text Tom Gulden at 440-897-0301. If you would like to join the Contemporary Choir, call or text Rick Jablonski at 440-785-0453. I look forward to hearing your "Joyful Noise" sometime soon!

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Eucharistic Adoration: Daily in the Chapel, 9am-4:30pm

"Lord, there are so, so many others more worthy than I that could be here to keep You company. So many who have been more faithful than I. Would You be more pleased at their presence? Or is that why I am here? Are You giving me this special opportunity to talk with You because You need me here more than someone else? Am I more in need of conversion? That means trying harder to put my life in Your hands, doesn't it? Giving you recognition for all that I am. That's the beginning of offering my "thank-yous," Jesus. How long a list that could be!" – From the book "An Hour With Jesus"

Come spend time with Jesus in quiet personal prayer.

RCIA—Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Becoming Catholic: Teresa Rosian and Richard Wiggins continue to prepare for full initiation at the Easter Vigil. On the 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays of Lent, the newly "Elect", Richard, will participate in rites called "the Scrutinies." These rites, with roots dating back to the early Church, take place at Sunday Mass, each thematically linked to the Gospel reading for that Mass. Through God's grace, these rites and our prayers, Richard will prepare more deeply for the Easter Mysteries.

Continue to prayer for Teresa and Richard.

Catholic Humor:

Gallagher opened the morning newspaper and was dumbfounded to read in the obituary column that not only had he died but that his parish of St. Patrick had already scheduled his funeral Mass! He quickly phoned his best friend, Finnegan. "Finney, did ye see the paper?" asked Gallagher. "I sure did!" replied Finney, "and by the way, where are you callin' from?"

First Communion

First Reconciliation & Communion

Youth Preparing to Receive the Lord

Recently, parents of children getting ready for First Holy Communion met to look forward to the special day on May 11. They prayed together with Fr. Kevin, discussed plans, and watched a wonderful presentation on our Lord's Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Everyone discussed this great blessing, among other blessings, that the Lord bestows on us. Please pray for our first communicants and their parents as they prepare themselves to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

Tickets are going fast for the Christ Child Society of the Western Reserve luncheon to help children in need in Lake County. Guest speaker is Joe Cronauer from Channel 3.

Doors open at 10:30AM at Regovich Catering in Eastlake. Tickets are $50 and are available through Eventbrite, www.christchildwesternreserve.org or at the Clothing Cottage (9324 Mentor Avenue, Tuesday-Saturday 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.) by cash or check. Call Donna Perrine at 440-221-7140 for details.

CONFIRMATION 2024

Our five Confirmation Candidates and Sponsors made 47 Easter Baskets for West Side Catholic Center. They will be delivered the week of March 18. Everyone did a fabulous job donating the items to be delivered to help out the Easter Bunny. Thank you!

Our sponsors received a blessing and accepted their journey to the Sacrament of Confirmation with our Candidates. Please continue to pray for them.

Coffee and Conversation

This week, we will stuff easter eggs with candy between 11:00-12:30 while we chat!

Lenten Thoughts for this week –

Fasting and Abstinence — fast from being online so much or watching television. Offer that time up by going on a walk, reading a book, praying or listening to some relaxing music.

Sharing — visit someone who is lonely or a neighbor you haven't seen in a while. Visit a nursing home or drop off goodies to our First Responders.

Prayer — take time each day to ask for God's forgiveness. Make a change in your life to better yourself. Receive the Sacrament of Penance.

Being Better in Lent is Simple

Bunny Hop EGGZtravaganza

RSVP to Beth for a table and set-up time. Candy donations can be placed in the box in the gallery.

EGG STUFFING will be during Coffee and Conversation on March 14 in the ATR and on Wednesday, March 20 in the Faculty Room of the school beginning at 1:00PM.

Parish Lenten Service Day in the Parish Hall this SUNDAY, March 10 from 1-3:30pm. Hope you can come and join us! Help us help the Unsheltered of Lake County and make blessing bags with us. See you soon!
