PENTECOST SUNDAY
MAY 19, 2024

Pentecost Sunday

When I was twenty-two years of age in August of 2000, I experienced World Youth Day in Rome. As for many of my generation, the event was life-changing for me. Surrounded by joyful, hope-filled young people from seemingly every nation and tongue, we were gathered around the Pope, sharing a common Faith and love. The Pope spoke to us of our shared family bond in the Church and invited us to give our lives in service to others. Now twenty-four years later, my life as a priest, like that of so many others from those special days, continues on that same path of love and unity — despite my many weaknesses. What makes that continuation possible?

This week's feast gives the answer: the Holy Spirit. The gift of God — His very life — the third person of the Trinity, is the Spirit who animates the entire Church and each member of it. He makes us one-in-love in a way that utterly exceeds human capacity. For example, He makes the apostles speak with tongues of fire, and everyone hears them in his own native tongue. The Holy Spirit is the means by which Jesus establishes a new family, one that crosses all possible boundaries of time, space, and culture. The Holy Spirit never tires in enthusing us for mission.

Aren't we longing to experience the Holy Spirit in a fresh way? Today, we celebrate this untiring flame, once ignited on earth and burning still. So, we humbly cry out: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love!

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin

Dear Parishioners,

Pentecost! The Holy Spirit comes down on the disciples and the Church moves out into the world by the power of that same Holy Spirit. The Spirit brings unity and holiness to our prayers and actions as we follow Jesus today. How does He do that? The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes this succinctly:

“God is love” and love is His first gift, containing all others. “God’s love has poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.” (CCC #733)

By this power of the Spirit, God’s children can bear much fruit. He who has grafted us onto the true vine will make us bear “the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.” “We live by the Spirit”; the more we renounce ourselves, the more “we walk by the Spirit.” (CCC #736)

Catholic Charities

APPEAL

Next weekend, we will conduct the Catholic Charities #2 In-Pew Appeal. All donations to this year’s “follow-up” appeal will be invested in our substance use disorder treatment programs and facilities. Addiction to drugs and alcohol has been a problem in our society for a long time, and Ohio is one of the leading states in drug overdose deaths. The donations made to this second appeal will support Catholic Charities’ strategy to help ease the suffering and cure those struggling with addiction.

Come Holy Spirit. Enlighten the hearts of your faithful. Kindle in them the fire of your love!

Peace, Father Kevin

Please return by June 16.

Prepare for the Feast

When Jesus was making His entry into Jerusalem, He sent His disciples ahead of Him to prepare for the Passover feast. Just as they were sent ahead to physically prepare for the Passover feast, we are also called to prepare ourselves for Mass. Like the disciples, there is the physical, apparent preparation where we wash up, get dressed and come to St. Justin for Mass. This is an important part because without this, the rest of it does not happen.

Further preparation is made when we prepare our minds and hearts for the celebration through the penitential rite. You may know this as the "Lord, Have Mercy; Christ, Have Mercy; Lord, Have Mercy" part. The Roman Rite also has another option for this preparation, known as the Confiteor - "I confess... that I have greatly sinned." This little rite cleans us from our venial (minor) sins and readies us to take part in the celebration of the Mass.

Then, just prior to receiving Christ in the Eucharist, we repeat the words of the centurion who was seeking Jesus' help with a sick servant. The centurion wanted Jesus to heal his servant, but he did not feel worthy to have Jesus enter his house. In repeating his words, we admit our unworthiness of allowing Christ to enter into our physical bodies. Although we are not worthy, we pray, that if the Lord only says the word, we shall be healed.

Finally, we step forward to receive the Body of Christ. We are presented with "The Body of Christ" by the minister of Holy Communion. Our response is a simple, "Amen," but what we are really saying is, Yes! I believe. Not only do I believe, but I stake my life on this belief. Our "Amen" is an ascent to the truth of Christ present in the Eucharist and our willingness to allow Him to enter into us to transform our lives.

Just like the disciples who were asked to prepare for the Passover feast, we likewise are called to prepare. We physically prepare by coming every Sunday, rain or shine, sports event or not, family commitment or not; we plan our weekend to ensure we come to Mass. We prepare our hearts by admitting our faults and seeking the Lord's mercy. Our reward for all this work is finally receiving Christ, who nourishes us and strengthens us for another week of fulfilling the mission He has called us to carry out.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Catholic Humor:

A parishioner of St. Cephalophore was very keen on evangelizing. He was a barber and one day a man came into his shop asking for a shave. The barber replied, "Yes sir! Just have a seat and I'll be right with you." The barber slipped into the back and prayed, "Lord, give me the wisdom to know what to say. Amen." He came out with his straight razor in one hand and a Bible in the other. He asked the customer, "Sir, I have a question for you: Are you ready to meet your Maker?"

Baptism Class for New Parents

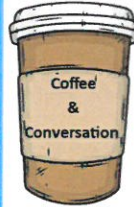

If you are first-time parents and you would like to have your infant baptized within the next four months, please call the parish office to sign up for our Baptism Class held on Thursday, June 6 at 7:00pm in the ATR Room. RSVP by Monday, June 3 at 440-946-1177.

First Holy Communion 2024

Congratulations to the children who received First Holy Communion on May 11th! We rejoice with their families who raised them in the Catholic Faith and prepared them to receive the Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Heartfelt gratitude goes out to all those involved in the celebration of the First Communion Mass, especially Fr. Kevin, Deacon Tim, musicians Tom Gulden and Barbara Plant, and ushers David Hobart and Tim Rosian. Special appreciation is extended to the teachers who taught the First Communicants over the past year: Mrs. Margie Zalar and Mrs. Margie Drew.

God Bless our First Communicants!
