TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JUNE 9, 2024

In the Family Way: By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Look here: there is no one more family-oriented than me. I drive a minivan. I wear mom jeans. I wipe unidentified gunk off of kids' faces without a second thought.

I'm all about family, but I'm not always a fan of what "family" has come to mean in the modern lexicon. Family values. Family-friendly. Family-oriented. It's usually a synonym for "non-offensive." Soft. Moderate. Nice.

It's all fine, I suppose. But is it genuine? Creating a family, bringing that family physically into the world, was the hardest and most painful thing I ever did. The care and keeping of that family — the teamwork with my spouse, the feeding and watering of the children, the teaching of the writing and the reading and the praying — it's very hardcore. It's not all stuffed animals and peekaboo. It's a mental, spiritual, and physical challenge that daily brings me to my knees.

I'm not even talking exclusively about parenting young children. I'm talking about being part of a family in any way — being a son, being a daughter, being a sister and cousin and uncle. Families are complicated and strange and messy. Sometimes boundaries need to be drawn, or they need to be crossed. Sometimes walls need to be put up or torn down. It's never easy. It's never simple.

But I've never known someone who didn't want to be part of a family in some way, whether that's a blood family or one created by circumstance. And there's a reason Christ creates a family ("Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother") and not a club.

A family is a crucible, yes — but what comes out is so much more beautiful than what went in. For all the effort and even pain that is sometimes involved in a family relationship, there is nothing more defining, more fulfilling.

We are part of Christ's family, and what we can expect from that is certainly not a life of simple, clear-cut, undemanding discipleship. We can expect confusion. We can expect discomfort. But we can expect to be perpetually drawn to the heart of One who loves us without hesitation, without condition.

In the end, we're family. "Here are my mother and my brothers." — Mark 3:33

FLAG DAY, JUNE 14

From the Desk of Fr. Kevin

Dear Parishioners,

"For all we receive, we bless the maker of all through his Son Jesus Christ and through the Holy Spirit." St. Justin

Before I came to St. Justin Martyr Parish as pastor in July 1993, I dusted off my seminary textbook on the Fathers of the Church to learn something about him. I learned that he is a great patron saint for us today, in love with God, with His people in the Church and with the people of the world Jesus came to save. St. Justin is a great example of following Jesus in faith, prayer and service. He has been a good companion for me as pastor.

As we celebrate my 50th Ordination Anniversary and my thirty-one years as pastor I am grateful for the grace to answer God's call. I have received so much good from God, from my family and friends, from all whom I have met in school, seminary and parish ministry. With help from all, I believe that I have been able to share much of that goodness with the people God has sent me to serve as a priest. There have been many successes and much learning from mistakes. In all, God's constant grace has sustained my hope.

You, the people of St. Justin, are God's gift to me and to one another. What first attracted St. Justin to Jesus was the witness of the Christians he met – their wisdom, their good lives their prayer which all flowed from their faith in Jesus. They were different and they were a blessing of life in a turbulent world. You are that same sort of blessing to me and I thank you again.

Fr. Joshua Cochrac will soon experience that blessing. Next weekend June 15-16, we will welcome Fr. Josh for an informal first visit at and after the Masses. Because he has a later Mass at St. Charles, he will not celebrate a Mass but he is looking forward to greeting us. It will be a happy day!

I look to the future with the confidence that we together will serve God and His Church better. Thank you for your support and prayers. Now enjoy! Peace, Fr. Kevin

Saturday 5PM/Sunday 8AM in the Gallery
Sunday 10:30AM in Parish Hall

Thank You, Fr. Kevin!

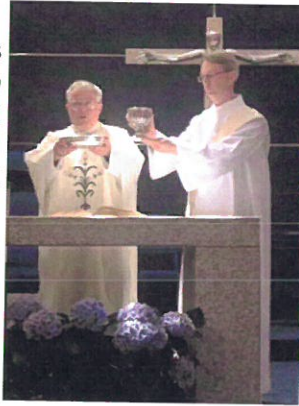

When I was ordained nine years ago, Bishop Lennon assigned me to St. Justin Martyr parish. I was eager to begin my ministry and met with Fr. Kevin to discuss how I would fit into the community. From my formation, I knew that Deacons serve many roles in the church. Since I work full time as a secular (Project Manager at ABB Inc.), my role would be somewhat limited to what I could fit into my schedule. Fr. Kevin, for his part, had never really had a deacon, so we agreed that since both of us were new at this, we would start slow.

Over that last nine years, Fr. Kevin has really afforded me the opportunity to grow and develop in my role as a Deacon. He has supported me and advised me in many of the different programs that I have sought to pursue. I am grateful for his guidance and encouragement.

There are not many people who know how beneficial Fr. Kevin has been for me. His openness to allowing me to serve the people of St. Justin as a Deacon has been a blessing. But that is just the way Fr. Kevin is with most people of the parish. Fr. Kevin quietly goes about supporting and serving all of us. His kindness and willingness to drop his work and visit someone who is sick, hospitalized, dying or grieving is his greatest gift to us all.

I am sure that if I asked, many parishioners would be willing to share their own Fr. Kevin story of his selfless dedication to serving his parish. On behalf of all of you, I thank you, Fr. Kevin, for laying down your life for us all. Thank you for your willingness to serve. May God bless you in your retirement.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults—RCIA
Becoming Catholic

The letters "RCIA" stand for the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." It is a process in which men and women are gradually introduced to the Catholic way of life and become full members of the Catholic Church. If you or someone you know are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please speak with Fr. Josh, Deacon Tim, a team member or the RCIA coordinator, Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 & Charles@stjustin.net. The RCIA Team invites you to offer a Rosary for the intentions of increasing the membership of St. Justin Martyr Church. Our prayers, example and welcoming outreach will foster growth in our parish.

Rest in Peace  Please keep in prayer those who have passed away, especially

All Saints School Scholarship Award

Congratulations to parishioner Nathaniel Peters who was awarded the Brittany Gallagher Scholarship from All Saints of St. John Vianney School.

The Brittany Gallagher Scholarship is a $2,500 Scholarship Award which is given to a Seventh Grade student who demonstrates Christian Values, dedication to academics, involvement in extracurricular activities, and is a good friend to those in need.

The Brittany Gallagher scholarship is a scholarship from Brittany's family. Brittany was an All Saints graduate and passed away in a car crash in 2013 on college spring break. The family and Alumni of All Saints donate to the scholarship.

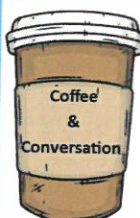

Nathaniel Peters is an altar server at our 5:00pm Mass on Saturdays and is often serving at Holy Day Masses as well, can be found volunteering at the Fish Fry Dinners in Lent, helps out at the Parish Festival with the kids' games, and is a general kind young man who helps wherever needed.

Congratulations to you, Nathaniel!
