TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 8, 2024

A Note From Our Parish Administrator:

Sixty years ago, the Diocese of Cleveland established a mission in El Salvador, a country named to honor "The Savior." Since then, we've maintained a regular relationship with the Catholic population of El Salvador. Many priests in the Diocese of Cleveland have ministered there, along with deacons and laymen and women. Now, a unique opportunity has arisen for priests and deacons across the Diocese to travel to El Salvador with Bishop Malesic and go on retreat this week. Deacon Tim and I will be leaving on Wednesday to participate in this retreat and visit the sites and shrines dedicated to the martyrs of El Salvador who gave their lives to bring the Gospel to this part of the world. This is a trip I have been preparing for since late 2023, and I know it will be both educational and spiritually enriching for us. Pray for us, and look forward to hearing more about this trip in a future homily! Many thanks to Fr. Bouhall and Fr. John Chrysostom, who will cover our weekend Masses while we are away.

As I mentioned last week in the Sunday liturgies and the bulletin, I urge you to take a moment to complete the Festival Survey. Your feedback is crucial to our Parish Festival Committee as they look for ways to freshen up what we did this year. Whether you enjoyed what we did and want to see that happen again, or you have ideas for new events, your input matters. Due to factors surrounding safety and costs, we would be unable to have a festival here on campus like we once did. However, we know that we can utilize our parish facilities in a way that would benefit our parish. Once again, I am so grateful for our excellent team, who take the time to come together to discuss and plan throughout the year.

Grief does not happen quickly and can take many years to work through. In some cases, it might even take an entire lifetime. At Saint Justin, we are so blessed to have a beautiful ministry for funerals. I have been impressed at the number of volunteers who assist us at the Funeral Mass and the luncheon that often takes place in the Parish Hall. We are doubly blessed to offer programs for those experiencing grief. Parishioner Joe Chabail is offering a bereavement series in October. In addition to that offering, we are hosting a retreat day for parents who have lost a child. If you or someone you know who has lost a child would like to participate, please contact Beth Rossetti at the Parish Office or Teresa Yohman at the Diocese of Cleveland to register. I am the chaplain for this retreat and would appreciate seeing you there.

St. Justin Martyr, pray for us! Fr. Josh

Happy Birthday, Mary!

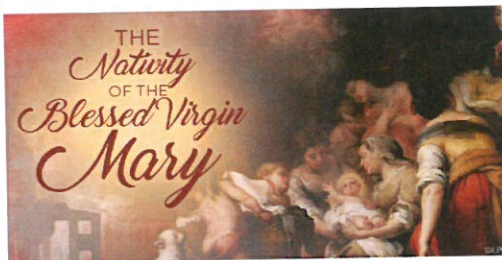

The Church celebrates the Immaculate Conception of Mary on December 8. The Immaculate Conception is our belief that Mary's mother, St. Anne, conceived her without original sin. This belief is less about Mary herself and more about the role she was chosen to fulfill. Mary, destined to bear the Son of God, was conceived without sin—not by her own merit, but through God's grace—so that she could be a worthy vessel to carry the second person of the Holy Trinity.

It follows, then, that nine months after the Church celebrates her conception, we celebrate Mary's birth on September 8. Mary was born to St. Anne and St. Joachim. Ancient writings tell us that the couple were advanced in years (sound familiar?) and had long-prayed for a child. God blessed them with the conception and birth of Mary.

The birth of Mary was the culmination of thousands of years of divine preparation. From the moment Adam and Eve sinned in the Garden of Eden, God had a plan to redeem humanity. Through Abraham, He formed a people of faith; through Jacob, a nation He would call His own. When His people were enslaved in Egypt for four hundred years, He sent the prophet Moses to liberate them. In David, God chose a king to lead His people. And finally, in Anne and Joachim, we see the fruit of this preparation.

The birth of Mary marks the beginning of the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy. In Mary, we rejoice that God is bringing His plan to fruition. Through her, we praise God for keeping His promise to become Emmanuel, God with us. Today, let us celebrate her birthday as a day worthy of celebrating!

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

St. Justin Martyr Parish Festival Survey

This past Monday, the Festival Committee met to discuss the success of this year's Festival and begin planning for next year. After a good discussion surrounding the details and logistics of potentially hosting an event here on campus, we want to hear from you! For next year's Festival, we are considering one of two options. We are asking you to vote on one of these two options!

Option 1: Have the Festival on Sunday, July 27th, at the Italian American Club in Wickliffe.

Option 2: Have an event at St. Justin Martyr sometime in the summer (possibly even two events) that would replace the Festival entirely.

Option 2 is an option that we will investigate thoroughly. We don't know what the event might look like if we pursue this option. However, it will include the traditional basket raffle and the main parish raffle.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults—OCIA

Becoming Catholic

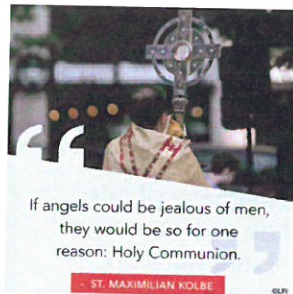

The letters "OCIA" are for the "Order of Christian Initiation of Adults." It is the way in which men and women are gradually introduced to the Catholic way of life and become full members of the Church. If you are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please speak with Fr. Josh, Deacon Tim, or the OCIA coordinator, Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 and Charles@stjustin.net. The OCIA Team invites you to offer a Rosary for the intentions of increasing the membership of St. Justin Martyr Church. Our prayers and example will help foster growth in our parish.

Catholic Humor: Sunday morning, a handicapped man struggled into a Catholic church. He stopped next to the holy water font, splashed some water on his legs, and then threw away his crutches. An altar boy watched the scene and rushed into the rectory to tell the pastor. "Son, you've just witnessed a miracle!" cried the priest. "Tell me, where is this man now?" "Flat on his back by the font," the boy replied.

15 Excuses for Not Going to Mass (Answered!)

2. If God is everywhere, why do I need to go to a church to be with Him?

St. Maximilian Kolbe said, "If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion." What a powerful thought that expresses the true gift of the Eucharist. Though God is everywhere, He comes down from Heaven to physically enter our bodies in the form of the Eucharist. We can not experience this type of closeness anywhere else on earth. "Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to Heaven. There are others: innocence, but that is for little children; penance, but we are afraid of it; generous endurance of trials of life, but when they come we weep and ask to be delivered. The surest, easiest, shortest way is the Eucharist." - Pope Pius X
