TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 15, 2024

A Note From Our Parish Administrator:

What does it look like to give yourself away to Christ and His Church?

So many of you are already great examples in your daily living in and around St. Justin. Here are a few examples:

1. We are one week away from the Sacrament of Confirmation being celebrated at Immaculate Conception in Willoughby. Our parish has prayed for the Confirmandi for months now. We ask the Holy Spirit to lead them to proclaim Christ in their lives, wherever they are called to serve.

2. The Red Cross will be here next Sunday from 8 am-2 pm.

There is always a great need for blood donations. If you can spare some time that day, please stop over to the Parish Hall to assist those in need!

3. Perhaps you have heard the news about Fr. Kevin Fox. Fr. Kevin Fox was ordained a priest from St. Justin Martyr in 2019 and has ministered at St. Bernadette in Westlake and at St. Charles in Parma (along with me until I started here). On October 1st, he begins a new ministry in Garfield Heights as the Administrator of two parishes: Ss. Peter and Paul and St. Therese. We offer our prayers for him.

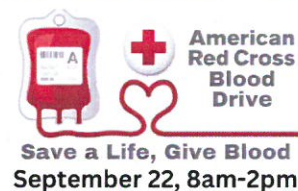

4. In addition, we pray for Fr. John Chrysostom Kozlowski, OP, who was also ordained from St. Justin Martyr Parish in 2012. He is going to be installed as the new pastor of St. Rose Parish in Girard (Diocese of Youngstown) on Saturday, September 28th. In addition to being Pastor of St. Rose, he serves as the Prior of the Dominicans in Youngstown, is the Diocesan Director of Formation for Permanent Deacons in Youngstown and is on the faculty at Saint Mary Seminary in Wickliffe, teaching Canon Law to the seminarians who are preparing to be ordained in the next year or two.

These are just a few examples of ways that some give their lives to Christ and the Church. As my time in El Salvador comes to a close, our travels have led us to see where several martyrs have given their lives to Christ, including some from Cleveland (Sr. Dorothy Kazel and Jean Donovan). Whether we do this in our daily "yes" through our vocation or the ultimate "yes" of our life, we know we are never alone. Christ is always with us.

St. Justin Martyr, pray for us! Fr. Josh

Sign up to help save lives!

Seven Sorrows of Mary

Last week, we celebrated Mary's birthday, a joyful occasion, but today we observe a much more somber Marian feast day. On the third Sunday in September, the Church calls us to remember our Sorrowful Mother. Growing up, my family attended Mother of Sorrows Parish in North Auburn, Ohio. Our parish had a replica of the Pietà, which beautifully captures one of the seven sorrows. We also made frequent pilgrimages to the Sorrowful Mother Shrine in Bellevue, Ohio. These experiences have carved a special place in my heart for our Sorrowful Mother.

When I was younger, I didn't fully understand the depth of Mary's sorrows, but as I grew older, I began to see how they point us to the heart of her love and sacrifice. Each sorrow reflects not only her suffering but also her unwavering faith and devotion to God's plan.

The Seven Sorrows of Mary are moments of intense anguish for the Blessed Mother, yet they also serve as powerful reflections for us. They guide us toward a deeper understanding of sorrow and how we can unite our own pain to Christ's redemptive work. The sorrows include:

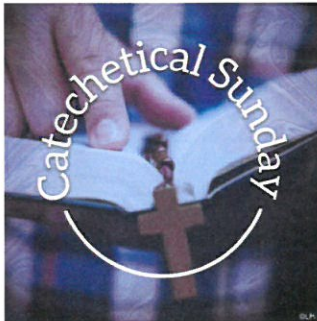

1. The Prophecy of Simeon
2. The Flight into Egypt
3. The Loss of the Child Jesus in the Temple
4. Meeting Jesus on the Way to Calvary
5. The Crucifixion and Death of Jesus
6. The Body of Jesus Taken Down from the Cross
7. The Burial of Jesus

Reflecting on these sorrows helps us to understand how Mary can truly be a mother to us all, sharing in our own sufferings and leading us closer to her Son, Jesus. Her pain reflects her immense love for each of us, making her a model of faith, hope, and compassion in the face of unimaginable hardship.

While it can be difficult to reflect on Mary's sorrows, they offer us comfort in our own struggles. In Mary, we find someone who was no stranger to suffering, and as we contemplate her sorrows, they provide a path for us to deepen our faith and trust in God.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Catechetical Sunday: St. Justin's celebrates Catechetical Sunday today. It is a day to recognize and appreciate those who teach the Catholic Faith in our parish. This year's theme is "Lord, when did we see you hungry?" (Matthew 25:37). Parish catechists will be called forward at each Mass for a blessing and to receive our support for their essential ministry. Catechetical

Sunday is a good opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism and Confirmation, in handing on the Faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

Ministry Spotlight: Broadcast Ministers

Ever wonder how we are able to have livestreaming of our Masses and Parish Events in the church? It is because of our Broadcast Ministers!

These ministers work behind the scenes to promote access to the Mass for those who are homebound or ill. Training is provided on how to use the equipment and the commitment is at Saturday Vigil Masses, usually once a month. We also try to Broadcast at least one Holy Day service as well. If you have any questions, or would like to become involved, please contact Deacon Tim Shell at tim@stjustin.net or 440-364-8088.

PSR: Parish School of Religion

PSR is for Catholic students who attend public school. PSR Classes began on Monday, September 9. It is not too late to enroll your child. Registration forms are available in the church gallery and parish office. They are also online at www.stjustin.net; look under "Forms." Classes have faith-filled & experienced teachers who will help form your children as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Catholic Humor

Two cannibals are discussing recipes. The first says, "You know, I just can't seem to get a missionary tender. I've baked 'em; I've roasted 'em; I've stewed 'em; I've barbecued 'em. I've tried every sort of marinade on them, and nothing works." The second cannibal asks, "What kind of missionary do you use?" The other replies, "You know, the ones that have those brown cloaks with a rope around the waist and they're sort of bald on the top." "Ah!" the second cannibal replies, "that's your problem. Those guys are friars!"

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults—OCIA:

Becoming Catholic

The letters "OCIA" stand for the "Order of Christian Initiation of Adults." It is the way in which men and women are gradually introduced to the Catholic way of life and become full members of the Church. If you are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please speak with Fr. Josh, Deacon Tim, or the OCIA coordinator, Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 or Charles@stjustin.net. The OCIA Team invites you to offer a Rosary for the intentions of increasing the membership of St. Justin Martyr Church. Our prayers and example will help foster growth in our parish.

15 Excuses for Not Going to Mass (Answered!)

3. The Mass is so boring. Have you ever encountered someone passionate about a subject you have no interest in? He or she could talk for hours on end about chemistry, sports, classical music, etc. Most often, we find these things boring because we don't really understand the complexities behind them. We don't need to take the time to understand football if we have no interest in it, but we absolutely need to take the time to understand the Mass because our salvation depends on it. The more we study and begin to understand the greatness and joy of the Mass, the more excited we will become about the beauty of our faith and traditions. Another way to prevent boredom is to get involved. Sign up to be an usher, lector, or a part of the choir. Serving in the Church in some way will help you to grow in your appreciation of the Mass.
