TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 29, 2024

A Note From Our Parish Administrator:

Welcome to those who were recently confirmed from St. Justin Martyr. We are here to support you as you grow in your relationship with God, who desires to be close to you daily.

Mark your calendars for the highly anticipated St. Justin Martyr Clam Bake next weekend! This event, planned and organized by our dedicated team, is a wonderful opportunity for our parish community to come together. If you haven't signed up yet, don't miss out—sign up today and I look forward to seeing you there.

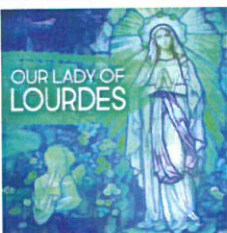

As September ends, I feel inclined to write a little about the upcoming election. Regardless of which candidate you vote for and who gets elected, please pray for them. Pray for our country and those who serve to protect us and keep us safe. I want to remind everyone that the Church does not support or endorse any candidate for office. When an issue arises, we can address specific issues that impact our lives – but we do not support a particular candidate. As we learned in Catholic school, God has given us a conscience to use to vote for a candidate, and we make the best choice we can in making that selection. We consider the dignity of every human being, especially those who have no one to speak up for them. We think about the future of our children and grandchildren. We consider the needs of those on the other side of the world who are impacted by this decision, too. As American citizens, we cherish the ability to vote. I encourage you to vote and hope you will utilize your conscience to make the best decision. I ask everyone to consider the virtue of charity along the way – be charitable to those who disagree with you or see things differently. Inside and outside of church, don't look at the person next to you as a Republican or a Democrat. Instead, I encourage you to see one another as God's children. God has brought us into this world to share himself with us through the gift of one another. As Genesis says, "It is not good for man to be alone." While we look forward to the election's conclusion, be sure to enjoy the month of October.

This Friday is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Bring your pets to church at 6 p.m. for a blessing from Deacon Tim!

St. Justin Martyr, pray for us! Fr. Josh

If you have any prayer intentions that you would like taken to Lourdes and placed in the grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes, please drop them off in an envelope to the parish office with Mary Ann Blase by Oct. 11. She is going on a pilgrimage in October and will be happy to take them to Mary.

Our Lady of Lourdes, Patroness of the Sick, pray for us.

Marriage Tune-up

Have you ever noticed that the only way to keep an older car running well is by taking care of it? If you don't stay on top of maintenance, that old car will start to break down. You need to check those rattles, replace the battery when necessary, and inspect the tire treads before winter hits. A periodic visit to your mechanic can prevent you from getting stranded without transportation.

The same principle applies to marriage. You need to keep it "tuned up" to ensure it continues running smoothly. No marriage is perfect, including my own. There are times when we don't communicate as well as we should, and we're still adjusting to our newly emptied nest. But we keep working on our relationship to keep it strong.

You may have seen advertisements in the bulletin for the Marriage Enrichment team.

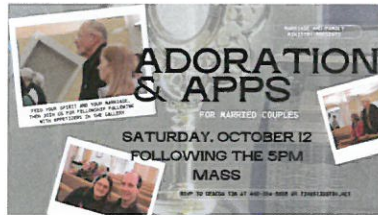

We've planned a couple of evenings that we hope will serve as a tune-up for your marriage. The first event is called "Adoration and Apps," planned for Saturday, October 12. It begins with the 5:00 PM Mass, followed by Adoration and a reflection led by Fr. Josh Cochrac. The evening will conclude in the gallery with appetizers. Everyone is invited to bring an appetizer to share. Afterward, couples are encouraged to extend the date night with drinks or dinner elsewhere.

The next event is a Date Night on November 9 at 6:00 PM. We'll enjoy dinner and a talk by Neil and Nellie Krawczynski on "Intimacy in Marriage." Couples will sit in groups for a family-style dinner and the presentation. While details are still being finalized, we're working to keep costs reasonable, so please ensure that this is on your calendar.

Whether you've been married for two years, twenty years, or more, every marriage can benefit from a tune-up. We hope to see you at these events. If you have any suggestions for other events, please feel free to share them with me or anyone from the Marriage Enrichment team.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Ministry Spotlight: Sacristans HELP NEEDED

The Sacristans, who help prepare the altars in the Church and Chapel, make sure proper candles are available and ready, clean the vessels and cloths used during the liturgy, are in need of additional help! Can you help in this behind-the-scenes ministry?

There are no monthly meetings to attend. We are in need of a person to help on a rotational basis on Saturday morning for a couple of hours. Your effort and time helps make the Mass run smoothly and look beautiful. If you are interested in helping in this special way, please call Loretta Vanagas at 440-942-7396.

PSR: Parish School of Religion:

It is not too late to enroll your child. Registration forms are available in the church gallery & online at www.stjustin.net under "Forms". Classes have faith-filled & experienced teachers who will help form your children as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults—OCIA: Becoming Catholic

The letters "OCIA" stand for the "Order of Christian Initiation of Adults." It is the way in which men and women are gradually introduced to the Catholic way of life and become full members of the Church. If you are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please speak with Fr. Josh, Deacon Tim, or the OCIA coordinator, Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 & Charles@stjustin.net. The OCIA Team invites you to offer a Rosary for the intentions of increasing the membership of St. Justin Martyr Church. Our prayers and example will help foster growth in our parish.

Catholic Humor: The pastor of an old German parish in Milwaukee wasn't about to let an economic downturn sideline a longstanding tradition. Even though the town was hurting from a recession, the parish's annual "WienerFest" had always been a big morale booster for the whole community. Despite grumbling from the parish council, the pastor repackaged the festival with the new theme: "It was the Best of Times; it was the Worst of Times."

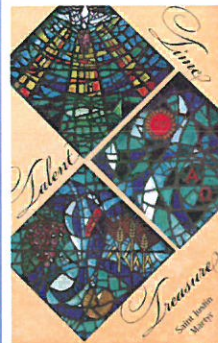

15 Excuses for Not Going to Mass (Answered!)

5. Going to Mass with my kids is like being in a wrestling match. They make noise, climb all over me, and can't sit still. Why even bother?

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it" (Mark 13-16). Our own frustrations cannot keep us and our families from celebrating the Mass. Yes, it is difficult and noisy to take small children to Mass. We won't deny that. There is nothing easy about Sunday morning; but when we bring our kids to the Lord, we are giving them the best gift we can offer. Our duty as parents is to evangelize and educate our children in the faith (CCC 2226). We are called to teach them to pray and to help them realize they are God's children. The ultimate goal is to lead our children to eternity in heaven. It is impossible to do this without attending Mass. This is a sacrifice that will reap wonderful fruits. You will see your children grow in their relationship with Christ when you put forth the effort to make it to Mass. "Shepherd of tender youth, guiding in love and truth, Through devious ways; Christ, our triumphant King, We come Thy name to sing, And here our children bring, To shout Thy praise." - Saint Ambrose

BLANKET SUNDAY COMING SOON! The weekend of October 12-13 marks the 38th Annual Blanket Sunday Collection to help the poor. This collection, sponsored by the Diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society, is very important to the homeless and poor in our Diocese. Due to sanitary concerns and lack of storage space, we will gratefully accept your financial donation and do the shopping for you, making your money go even further with bulk purchases of blankets and other items needed by poverty-stricken and unhoused neighbors.
