TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 6, 2024

A Note From Our Parish Administrator:

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who lived in a land of gloom, a light has shone." Isaiah 9:1.

I have spent much time over the past few months praying and reflecting on this Scripture. The Prophet Isaiah reminds us, just as he reminded the Israelites, that God will bring light unto our darkness. Have you ever considered how our families and friends come here to St. Justin Martyr to find hope? Even over the past few months, I have witnessed people coming here to find relief and comfort in their suffering. I have seen parish members give their time, talent, and treasure to help in whatever way they can. Daily, people call us to seek assistance. Sometimes, it is in the form of help through our Helping Hands ministry. Other times, it is through prayer. This parish is a "light," a beacon for many.

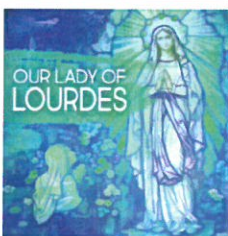

I am preaching at every Mass this weekend to tell you more about a new theme I plan to incorporate into the following year. This theme is called "Becoming Beacons of Hope." I think that each of us has a responsibility, by our Baptism, to become a beacon of hope for those around us. Our parish must become a beacon of hope for those in our community. I think we have done that well and have a lot of work to do. Despite war and division in our world and community, we can become that same light when we work together to make this vision happen. None of us can do this on our own; we do it with the help of God. Please join me this coming year to become a beacon of hope for those in Eastlake and beyond who come here to find light in their darkness.

This coming week, I will attend the annual Priesthood Convocation in Huron. All the Diocese of Cleveland priests are invited to participate and hear messages while spending a few days together. I am grateful to Father Mick Joyce, a Capuchin priest from the seminary, who will celebrate daily Mass for us while I am away. Know of my prayers for you this week and my gratitude for all that you do here at St. Justin Martyr.

St. Justin Martyr, pray for us! Fr. Josh

Rest in Peace  Please pray for our parishioner who has passed away this week and for her family's consolation:

Philomena Black, mother of Richard Black

If you have any prayer intentions that you would like taken to Lourdes and placed in the grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes, please drop them off in an envelope to the parish office with Mary Ann Blase by October 11. She is going on a pilgrimage in October and will be happy to take them to Mary.

Our Lady of Lourdes, Patroness of the Sick, pray for us.

Unexpected Grace

The COVID-19 pandemic can bring back some difficult memories, but God has a way of turning bad things into something good. While the world felt uncertain and isolated, we discovered new ways to stay connected that we never could have imagined. We all struggled with separation from our community, church, and even family. But in the midst of this, something unexpected happened—our parish formed a Rosary group that began meeting twice a week to pray together.

What began as a way to stay connected and spiritually grounded quickly became a source of immense grace. As we prayed the Rosary, we shared our needs, our hopes, and our gratitude. It became more than just a prayer group; it became a lifeline of support and faith. Week after week, we came together, and without realizing it, God's grace flowed through each moment of shared prayer and fellowship.

The grace not only came from the prayers themselves, but from the community that formed in a time when we felt so distant from one another. These twice-weekly gatherings are a reminder that even in the most challenging times, God's grace finds a way to break through.

Our group continues to experience the blessings of coming together in prayer. We have found Christ's promise to be true: "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst" (Matthew 18:20). In our prayer group, we feel His presence and receive His grace.

Tomorrow, October 7, the Church celebrates the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

I encourage you to take some time this week to honor Our Lady, who always comes to the aid of her children when we call on her. Pray the Rosary. And if you ever find it difficult to pray on your own, join us on Tuesdays and Fridays at 7:30 PM. We stream live on St. Justin's Facebook page, and you'll be most welcome.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

Classes have faith-filled and experienced teachers who will help form your children as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Catholic Humor: A priest went up to the Great Northwest to minister to lumberjacks. When he arrived, there was already a long line of tough guys waiting to go to Confession. The 1st logger knelt down and gruffly said, "Well, Father, I've been really bad, breaking all the Commandments." The priest asked, "Well, have you committed murder?" The lumberjack said, "Not that one." Looking at the long line, the priest told the logger just to say an "Our Father" and avoid sinning in the future. The confused logger came out and hollered to his buddies, "Forget it, guys. He's only interested in hearing murder cases today." 15 men stayed in line.

15 Excuses for Not Going to Mass (Answered!)

6. I don't like going to Mass. It is vital that we do things we don't like to do to grow and flourish. Perseverance and discipline are needed to advance in everyday life and in our faith, as well. The Mass is essential to our relationship with Christ and in maintaining our bond in the Mystical Body of Christ. It is at the Mass that we can most fully receive Christ through the Eucharist. We are never closer to our Lord than in the moment that His Body is present in ours. That gift alone is worth far more than our enjoyment, entertainment, or "catching up on choirs." Whatever it is that you don't like about the Mass, it can be overcome with the love of Christ present in the Eucharist.

"Every holy Mass, heard with devotion, produces in our souls marvelous effects, abundant spiritual and material graces which we, ourselves, do not know. It is easier for the earth to exist without the sun than without the holy Sacrifice of the Mass." - St. Padre Pio

Many thanks to Marion Hanna and the Christ Child Society of the Western Reserve
The PSR Program of St. Justin Martyr Parish was given a donation of $1,000 for the support of their religious education programs for children this past week from the Christ Child Society of Western Reserve. Marion Hanna, our parish representative, presented Charlie Hunt, DRE and Fr. Josh with this wonderful donation! We are sincerely grateful! If you would like to learn more about Christ Child, please contact Marion at 440-975-8208.

TODAY IS RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY!

This month, we celebrate Respect Life Month. All parishioners are invited to help us support life from natural conception through death, noting the precious gift of all human life.

Throughout this month we ask you to pray for:

- An end to abortion and an increase in walking with mothers in need
- An end to human trafficking in both sexual trafficking and labor trafficking
- An increase in serving the needs of those who require special services for their medical conditions
- A stop to capital punishment
- For those who are on their end-of-life journey

How can we help here at St. Justin Martyr?

- Help our Respect Life Committee with donations for Birthright which are collected monthly and taken to help moms in need
- Stand with us for 40 Days for Life outside Signature Health in Painesville on Thursdays. We have a group that faithfully attends; join them for an hour of peaceful prayer
- Highlight the dignity of all human life with advocacy for fair wages for all employed and child safety especially in our communities
- Show tolerance for those with special needs and be kind and welcoming when we meet them
- Pray for those in prisons and for an end to the taking of lives in punishment
- Volunteer to take Communion to the homebound

October is Mission Month

As we begin the month of October, we enter a special period of reflection and action for Church's missionary efforts worldwide. World Mission Sunday, which we will celebrate on October 20th, is a vital time for all Catholics to support the spread of the Gospel in mission territories. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizing our call to bring God's love and message to all corners of the world.

The contributions collected on World Mission Sunday are crucial for sustaining the Church's mission in over 1,150 territories where the Church is still young and struggling. Historically, the Church in the United States was once a beneficiary of these missionary efforts, and now we have the opportunity to give back and support others around the globe. There is an envelope in your packet for this purpose.

We are also collecting for the local refugees here in the Diocese of Cleveland with the Stewardship Committee and Holy Name Society's collection for the Diocesan Resource Center. Items may be dropped off at the parish on the next two weekends. Flyers are in the gallery if you would like to help support others in need.

BLANKET SUNDAY "COVERS" MANY NEEDS! Next weekend is Blanket Sunday, sponsored by the Diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society. When you make a financial donation, your money will go even further through bulk purchases for those in need. Envelopes are in the gallery for this purpose! Thank you for your help keeping Cleveland warm this winter!

"Becoming a Beacon of Hope" Program

This week, you will receive a brochure introducing our "Becoming a Beacon of Hope" Program. We are proud to be a part of the St. Justin Martyr community. On commitment weekend, October 12-13, we are invited to participate in this important program and respond to God's great gift of love. Please review this brochure and prayerfully consider how you and your family can help St. Justin Martyr by financially supporting our ministries, furthering our mission and reinforcing our future.

We ask that all faithful parishioners complete a Commitment Card. A card will be included in the brochure mailing for you to:

- Mail to the church using the pre-addressed envelope in this mailing
- Or bring your card to Mass next Sunday
- Or you may visit our parish website at www.stjustin.net and complete an electronic Commitment Card

The back of the Commitment Card has a place for you to include any prayer intentions you would like to share. We welcome all intentions and they will be prayed for collectively over the next few weeks. If you would like to speak to a priest, please indicate on your card and we will be in contact with you.

Our goal is 100% participation! Thank you for your generosity to St. Justin Martyr Parish!

From September 25 to November 3, you are invited to join with other Christians for 40 Days for Life – 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. Additionally, you are invited to stand and peacefully pray anytime between 7am to 7pm during the 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside Signature Health – 54 South State St., Painesville, 44077. Our parishioners go on Thursdays to pray peacefully. All are welcome to come and support life with us. See the sheet in the gallery and sign up to stand up for life!

Join us for our Annual Rosary Rally | Saturday, October 12 at Noon with others all across America | Front Lawn of St. Justin Martyr, rain or shine | Bring a chair, bring a Rosary & bring a friend!

Office of the Bishop

27 September 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the Catholic Tradition of responsible citizenship, we are morally obligated to participate in political life and to make choices based on a properly formed conscience, voting for the candidates who best support the moral teachings of our Catholic faith. As you prepare to cast your ballot for the upcoming November election, I ask that you pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit and educate yourself on the candidates' positions on the critical issues that will affect us all, both now and in the future.

Before we are members of any political party, we must be faithful followers of Jesus, who told us "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" (John 3:35). So, it is incumbent on us who are believers to live our Catholic faith outside the walls of our Churches, putting Christ at the center of our public lives as citizens. Our consciences must be well informed through prayer and fidelity to the teachings of the Catholic Church. Then we must vote our consciences, which I urge you to do, so that your Catholic faith will impact the moral and social fabric of our society.

In the Introductory Note to Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the document issued by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to help guide us on our political responsibilities, we bishops again said that the defense of unborn life remains our pre-eminent priority because abortion is a direct attack on the most vulnerable among us. We also recognize that other grave threats to the life and dignity of the human person include euthanasia, gun violence, terrorism, the death penalty, human trafficking, the redefinition of marriage and gender, threats to religious freedom, lack of justice for the poor, the suffering of migrants and refugees, racism, and the lack of care for our common home. All these issues must be considered when voting for the person who will best represent us, placing the interests of the most vulnerable first among others.

At a time when our nation is so polarized by partisanship and ideology, and the issues are so serious and complex, it is of the utmost importance that we persevere in hope, remembering the words found in the Book of Micah, who said, "You have been told, O mortal, what is good, and what the Lord requires of you: Only to do justice and love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Micah 6:8).

For those looking for more information on faithful citizenship, both the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Catholic Conference of Ohio (which outlines topics specific to our state) offer extensive materials and resources to provide guidance.

Please join me in praying for all those who are running for office in the upcoming election. May the Lord inspire and guide them to lift up the dignity of all persons they will serve if chosen by the electorate. May the Lord guide us in these important decisions at this critical time in our history, heal our divisions, and unite us one nation, under God.

May God bless you and those you love.

Your brother in Christ,

+ Edward C. Malesic
