THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 27, 2024

A Note From Our Parish Administrator:

Fr. Tony invited me to become an altar server in Fourth grade. I remember being excited to get more involved at Mass because it gave me a new perspective on what it meant to be up closer to the Altar. Little did I know that that invitation was the beginning of what my vocation would eventually lead me toward: becoming a priest! Since being ordained in 2020, I have found that the priesthood is a journey filled with unique and diverse experiences, with no two days being the same. That's what I find most exciting about my vocation: there is much room for God to work. I love being a priest and would encourage any young man to consider, whether it might be something they'd find fulfilling. This weekend, we welcome Josh Stecz, a seminarian from Saint Mary Seminary, who will share a little bit about priesthood with us. Welcome, Josh!

This coming Friday is the Feast of All Saints! It is a Holy Day of Obligation, and we will have Masses offered on Thursday at 5 p.m., as well as on Friday at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. We wish all our young children a safe Halloween who will be Trick-or-Treating on Thursday.

On Tuesday of this week, our parish office will close a half-hour early. We will have a staff celebration to recognize and thank Joe Erbeznek, who has worked at St. Justin for the past 15 years as our business manager. Many thanks to Joe for all his work over the years – we hope he gets some rest in retirement.

RETIREMENT

Liturgical Ministers

If you are actively involved as a liturgical minister, we hope to have you join us on Saturday, November 16th, from 1-4, for Liturgical Ministry Afternoon of Reflection.

We plan to roll out some updates to ministers, while also talking about "why we do what we do." Our day will feature two guest speakers who will enlighten us with great reflection. We look forward to a spirit-filled afternoon! St. Justin Martyr, pray for us! Fr. Josh

Catholic Duty in the Voting Booth

As election season approaches, it's important for us to reflect on our civic duty and how our faith informs the choices we make at the ballot box. Voting is not just a civic responsibility, but also a moral obligation—an opportunity to contribute to the common good and shape a society that reflects Gospel values. The U.S. Bishops have provided clear guidance in their document "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship," reminding us of the importance of aligning our voting decisions with the teachings of Christ and His Church.

The USCCB's instruction emphasizes that Catholic voters must approach elections with well-formed consciences. This means prayerfully considering the moral dimensions of each issue and each candidate. Our decisions should not be driven by party allegiance or personal interests, but rather by our commitment to uphold human dignity and the common good. The Bishops caution against single-issue voting, urging us to weigh the full spectrum of moral concerns that the Church holds dear.

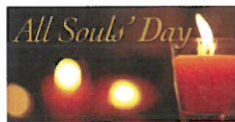

How do we form a well-formed conscience? We are urged to begin by studying Scripture, the Catechism, and Catholic social teaching. We are also called to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Before entering the voting booth, it's essential to reflect on how each decision upholds the Gospel's call to love our neighbor, protect life, and promote justice.

Finally, it's important to remember that voting is just one way we participate in the life of our country. Beyond elections, we are called to continue advocating for justice, peace, and the dignity of every human person. Our faith demands that we engage with the world—not only in the voting booth, but in our daily lives, seeking ways to serve our communities and promote the common good.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Tim

All Souls Mass of Remembrance | Saturday | November 2 | Noon

Our All Souls Remembrance Mass is our way of giving thanks to God for the life of our loved ones and our trust in His promise of a new eternal life for them with Him in heaven. Please drop off a framed picture of your loved one for the display in the parish office before the Mass day, so we can place it on our Memorial Table. We hope that you will come and remember with us, pray with us, and give thanks to God with us.

Daily Eucharistic Adoration in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel 9:00am-4:00pm

"Faith in action is service. We try to be holy because we believe. In most modern rooms, you see an electrical light that can be turned on by a switch. But if there is no connection with the main powerhouse, then there can be no light. Faith and prayer are our connection with God and power of that connection is service."

Catholic Humor: There were once two evil brothers. They were rich and used their money to hide their dastardly ways from the public eye. They even attended the same parish and looked to be perfect Catholics. Their pastor, however, was not fooled. One of the brothers died. The other brother called on the pastor the day before the funeral and handed him a huge check, enough to pay off the new addition to the church. "I have only one condition," he said, "at his funeral, you must say my brother was a saint." The priest thought for a moment and agreed. At the funeral, the pastor was unrestrained: "This was an evil man! He cheated on his wife, abused his family..." At the end of a list of evils, the priest concluded, "But compared to his brother, he was a saint."

15 Excuses for Not Going to Mass (Answered!)

9. I don't understand what the priest says. There are more than 412,000 priests throughout the world. Each of these men is unique in his intellectual abilities, speaking style and relational skills. Some of us may be blessed to be in a parish with a priest that gives homilies that inspire us and challenge us to grow in our faith. Others may be in a more challenging situation where the priest speaks above our level of understanding or is not very interesting to listen to. Regardless of the type of priest we have in our church, we must remember that the priest's personality is not the reason we go to Mass. We go to Mass to give God the glory, honor, and worship He deserves. Above all, be patient with your priest. Look for ways to encourage him in his vocation. This is a man who has chosen to give his life for glory of God. Pray that the Holy Spirit would enlighten and inspire all priests.
